If the Officer shall find the Quantity of Spirits exceed the Proportion above mentioned, such Increase shall be seized.

If any Distiller shall keep Low Wines more than 24 Hours after running off from the Wash Still, he shall forfeit 10 l. per Hour.

Disputes relative to the Delivery of a Permit to the Buyer of British Spirits, how to be determined.

XII. Provided always, That when any Suit or Action shall be commenced, or any Information brought, wherein the Delivery or Non-delivery of any Permit to the Buyer of any British Spirituous Liquors shall become a Question, it shall be sufficient for the Seller to exhibit on Proof the Permit, intitled, The Seller's Permit, for the Removal of such British Spirituous Liquors, and to prove that there hath been a suitable Decrease in the Seller's Stock of the Spirits mentioned in such Permit; and, upon the making out such Proof, the Spirituous Liquor in question shall be adjudged to have been sent out and delivered with a lawful Permit, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act.

Exception with respect to Spirits of Wine.

XV. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Rectifier or Compounder of Spirits, or any Dealer in Compounds, British Brandy, or other rectified Spirits, upon Condition of their keeping their whole Stock of Spirits of Wine separately and apart from their Stock of other Liquors, but not otherwise, to call for and receive Permits for sending out Spirits of Wine of any higher or greater Degree of Strength than that of one in ten under Hydrometer Proof, to any Person not being a Maker, Rectifier, or Compounder of Spirits, so that the whole Quantity of such Spirits of Wine, to be sent to any one Person in the same Day, shall not exceed one hundred and twenty Gallons; and the Officer granting such Permits, shall therein express the same to be double Spirit, and shall debit the Stock of such Rectifier, Compounder, or Dealer, at the Rate of one hundred and eighty Gallons of British Spirits, for every one hundred Gallons of Spirits of Wine, for which such Permits shall be respectively granted.

Rectifiers, &c. for every 100 Gallons of raw Spirits they shall receive, are allowed Permits for sending out 140 Gallons of Compounds, &c.

XVI. Officers, once in 30 Days, to take an Account of the Stock of all Distillers for Home Consumption, and of the raw Stock of Dealers;

'XVIII. And, to the Intent that the Officers of Excise may the better guard against and discover any 'illicit Practices for evading the Duties upon Worts, Wash, and other Liquors, granted by this Act,' be it further enacted, That the Officers of Excise shall, within thirty Days after the Day of the passing of this Act, and so afterwards once in every thirty Days at the least, and oftener when Occasion shall require, or when directed by any Principal or General Officer of Excise, or by the Surveyor or Supervisor of the District, take an Account of the Stock of all Distillers and Makers of British Spirits for Home Consumption, and also of the raw or unrectified Stock of all Dealers in Spirits for Home Consumption, (such Distillers, Makers, or Dealers, not being actual Rectifiers or Compounders of Spirits); and if, on taking the same, the Quantity of Spirits in Stock, added to the Quantity for which Permits shall have been granted since the last Reckoning shall be found to exceed the Stock left in Hand on the last Reckoning, added to the Quantity since legally made or received by Permit (such Stock being cast or computed at the Strength of one to ten over Hydrometer Proof), the Quantity of Spirits so found in Excess shall be seized, lost, and forfeited.

And also of the raw Stock of Rectifiers and Compounders, and of their Compounds, &c.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That if a previous Notice of twelve Hours, in Writing, be given or left by the Officer of Excise, of his Intention to take any Stock of raw or unrectified Spirits, Compounds, British Brandy, or other Spirits, by virtue of this Act, the Owner thereof shall forthwith fill up, or cause to be filled up, all such of his moveable Casks as shall not be left empty, except that he may leave one Ulage of each respective Sort or Species of Compounds, British Brandy, or other Spirits, to the Intent that such Officer may be able to take such Stock with the greater Ease and Certainty; and the Owner of any such Stock refusing or neglecting so to do, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

Moveable Casks not empty, to be filled up before Officers take Stock, on Penalty of 100*l*.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That no Dealer in Spirits, not being also a Maker or Rectifier of Spirits for Home Consumption, shall be allowed any Increase upon any Spirits whatsoever; and if, on taking an Account of the Stock, there shall be found any raw or unrectified Spirits of a greater Strength than that of one to ten over Hydrometer Proof, or any British Brandy, or Compounds of any Kind, above the Strength of one in ten under Hydrometer Proof, (save only and except Spirits of Wine, which are herein-before otherwise provided for,) the same shall be respectively seized and forfeited.

Dealers, who are not Rectifiers, &c. not to be allowed any Increase upon Spirits.

XXIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if, on taking the Stock of any Dealer in Spirits, not being an actual Rectifier or Compounder, any British Spirits, or Compounds, or British Brandy, (excepting Spirits of Wine received by lawful Permit under this Act,) or any Mixture of British Spirits, Compounds, or British Brandy with foreign Spirits, shall be found in his Custody, exceeding the Strength of one in ten under Hydrometer Proof, the same shall be deemed British Spirits illicitly obtained, and shall be seized and forfeited.

Spirits found in the Possession of Dealers above the Strength allowed by this Act, to be forfeited.

'XXV. And, to the Intent that no Allowance may be made, or Permits granted, to any Person or 'Persons calling themselves Rectifiers or Compounders for Sale, but not being known and actual Rectifiers or Compounders, for any Increase which such Person or Persons may make in their Stock by 'Water,' be it further enacted, That no Dealer, or other Person, shall be deemed to be a Rectifier or Compounder of British Spirits within the Purview or Intent of this Act, who shall not have an entered Still, capable of containing in the Body thereof, exclusive of the Head, one hundred and twenty Gallons at the least, nor unless such Still shall have suitable Tubs and Worms affixed thereto, and shall be really and bona fide used for the rectifying of British Spirits for Sale.

Who shall be deemed Rectifiers or Compounders of British Spirits.

'XXVI. And, to the Intent that the Officers of Excise may the more conveniently examine into, and 'give Proof (if necessary) of the Strength and Quality of any Compounds, British Brandy, or other 'Spirits for Home Consumption,' be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Officers of Excise, at all Times, to take Samples, not exceeding four Gallons respectively, of any Compounds, British Brandy, or other Spirits whatever, upon Payment after the Rate of seven Shillings per Gallon for British Spirits, and of thirteen Shillings per Gallon for foreign Spirits.

Officers may take Samples of Spirits, paying for the same.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That no Maker, Rectifier, or Compounder of Spirits, shall receive into his Stock or Possession any raw or unrectified Spirits in any Cask or Vessel of a less Size or Content than that of one hundred Gallons at the least; nor shall any rectified or unrectified Spirits, or any Compounds, or British Brandy, be received by any Distiller, Rectifier, or Compounder, or by any Dealer in Spirits, at any other Time than between the Hours herein-after mentioned; that is to say, From the twenty-fifth Day of March, to the twenty-ninth Day of September, both inclusive, between the Hours of five in the Morning and seven in the Evening; and from the thirtieth Day of September, to the twenty-fourth Day of March, both inclusive, between the Hours of seven in the Morning and six in the Evening; and when and so often as any raw or unrectified Spirits shall be received in any Cask or Vessel of a less Content or Size than such as is before described, or if any raw or unrectified Spirits, or any Compounds, or British Brandy, shall be received at any other Hour than as herein-before for that Purpose is limited, such Compounds, British Brandy, and other Spirits, shall be seized and forfeited.

In what sized Vessels, and at what Hours, Spirits may be received by Distillers, Rectifiers, &c.

'XXVIII. And whereas great Frauds are daily committed by Distillers fraudulently conveying Wash 'into their Stills, and the Officers of Excise are not sufficiently enabled to discover the same, by reason 'of the Number of Pipes and Conveyances which communicate with the Charging Pipe;' now, the better to enable the Officers of Excise to detect such Frauds in future, be it enacted, That no Distiller of Spirits, whether for Home Consumption or Exportation, shall, from and after the first Day of October, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, have or keep any Pipe or Conveyance leading to his Wash Still, save and except the known Charging Pipe or Conveyance leading from his known and entered Wash Back or Backs, and which said Pipe or Conveyance shall empty itself into a Shute, open Trunk, or Vessel, at a Distance not exceeding six Feet from the Still, and of the following Dimensions; (that is to say,) At least four Feet in Length, two Feet in Width, and two Feet in Depth; from which Shute, open Trunk, or Vessel, the Conveyance Pipe, into the Wash Still, shall be in a straight Line; on Pain of forfeiting, for every other Pipe or Conveyance erected, set up, kept, or continued, the Sum of two hundred Pounds: And, to the End that the Officers of Excise may be able to taste, examine, and ascertain the Quality of all Wash, or other Liquors intended to be conveyed into the Still or Stills of every Distiller or Maker of Low Wines and Spirits, whether for Home Consumption or Exportation, such Officers are hereby empowered, as often as to them, or any one of them, shall seem expedient, to take a Sample or Samples of the Wash or Liquid while in Fermentation, or during its Conveyance to the Wash

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Clauses, Provisions, Restrictions, Powers, Authorities, and Directions, enacted, provided, granted, and contained in and by an Act of the twelfth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the more effectual preventing of Frauds in the Revenues of Excise, with respect to Tea, Soap, Low Wines, and Spirits; or in and by an Act of the fourteenth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to extend so much of an Act, passed in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, as relates to Distillers or Makers of Low Wines and Spirits from Corn, to every Kind of Distiller; and for the more effectual securing the Revenue of Excise arising from Low Wines and Spirits; and for ascertaining the Allowance to be made to the Manufacturers of Wool and Linen, in respect of the Duties on Soap imported and used in the Woollen and Linen Manufactures; so far as the same relate to or concern the finding, providing, and affixing any Locks, Keys, or Fastenings to the Furnace Doors, Wash Pumps, Still Head, and Charge and Discharge Cock, of any Wash Still, and to the Head and Discharge Cock of any Low Wine Still for the making of Spirits for Home Consumption, and for the securing, locking up, and Use thereof respectively; and the Powers, Authorities, and Directions thereby respectively given to the Officers of Excise for the opening and shutting of the Furnace Doors, and Still Heads, and Cocks, and for enforcing a due Obedience to the said Acts, in respect to the Matters aforesaid, under the several Pains and Penalties thereby respectively imposed and inflicted for any Disobedience or Neglect concerning the same, shall be, and the same are hereby re-enacted and declared to extend to all Furnaces, Wash Pumps, and Stills of Distillers and Makers of Low Wines and Spirits for Exportation.

The Provisions contained in 12 Geo. 3, Cap. 46.;

and 14 Geo. 3, Cap. 73

so far as relates to providing Locks or Keys to the Furnace Doors, Still Head, &c.

extended to Distillers of Low Wines, &c. for Exportation.

'XXX. And, for enabling the Officers of Excise the better to guard against any Fraud in the Charge 'of the Wash Still for distilling of Low Wines and Spirits for Exportation, under a Pretence of such 'Charge having been increased by Water or other Fluid mixed therewith;' be it further enacted, That no Distiller or Maker of Spirits for Exportation shall have or be intitled to any Allowance, for or under any Pretence of any Increase by Water or any other Fluid mixed with the Wash put into the Still; but the whole Charge of the Still shall be considered as Wash, and the Distiller or Maker shall, in respect of the said Charge, produce to the proper Officer the several and respective Quantities and Proportion of Spirits specified and directed in and by an Act of the twenty-first Year of his present Majesty's Reign, for (amongst other Things) the better and more effectually securing the Revenue of Excise, and of the Inland Duties under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise, and for preventing Frauds therein, under the Pains and Penalties in and by the said Act directed and provided in that Behalf.

Distillers not intitled to any Allowance for Increase of Wash in the Still.

'XXXI. And whereas Distillers and Makers of Spirits, having made Entry of their Still-houses, have 'sometimes for illicit Purposes withdrawn such Entry, although their Utensils for brewing and fermenting Wort, Wash, or other Liquors, and for distilling of Spirits, have been left standing, or in such a 'State as to be readily converted again to those Uses: And whereas there is reason to suspect that great 'Quantities of Spirits have been made in the Night-time, by Distillers and Makers of Spirits, without 'the Knowledge of the Officers of Excise, and that such Spirits have been afterwards concealed, or 'clandestinely removed, and the Duties chargeable thereon evaded: And whereas such Distillers and 'Makers of Spirits, disregarding the small and inadequate Penalty provided by Law for refusing Access 'by Night to the Officers of Excise, have many Times excluded and prevented any Officer from entering their respective Still-houses in the Night-time, whereby Opportunities have been obtained of defrauding his Majesty of a considerable Part of the Duties upon Low Wines and Spirits: And whereas 'no Provision is made by Law, whereby any Excise Officer can or may, in the Night-time, have Access 'to the entered Premises of the Maker of Spirits for Home Consumption, but in the Presence of a Constable, or Peace Officer; and by means of the frequent Difficulty of finding any such Officer in the 'Night, as well as of the Smallness of the Penalty which he incurs by his Refusal to attend the Officer 'of Excise for such Purposes when required, the Assistance of such Peace Officer can seldom be obtained;' be it further enacted, That no Distiller, or Maker of Spirits for Home Consumption, shall be allowed to withdraw or discontinue his or her Entry of any Still-house or Store-house, whilst any Duty therein shall be depending, or any Utensils for brewing, fermenting, or distilling, shall be standing; and that it shall and may be lawful for any Officer or Officers of Excise, belonging to the District, to enter by Night, as well as by Day, by the usual or most accustomed Doors or Passages, into all entered Still-houses, and all other Places where Utensils for brewing, fermenting, or distilling, are standing, belonging to any Distiller or Maker of Low Wines and Spirits for Home Consumption or Exportation; and if any Person or Persons shall wilfully obstruct any such Officer or Officers of Excise from having free Ingress and Regress into and from any such entered Still-house or Place, every such Person shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of two hundred Pounds; and after any Obstruction, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Officer or Officers of Excise, together with proper Assistance, to break open, by Force, any Doors leading or belonging to such entered Still-house or Place, or any of the Windows thereof, or to break through any of the Walls, so far as is necessary for obtaining Entrance thereinto: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent any Distiller from changing his Entry for the making of Spirits for Home Consumption, to an Entry for making of Spirits for Exportation, or from changing his Entry for the making of Spirits for Exportation, to an Entry for making of Spirits for Home Consumption, so that every new Entry for the respective Purposes aforesaid be made on the same Day whereon such Distiller shall have withdrawn or discontinued his former Entry; but if the new Entry shall not be made on the same Day in which the former Entry shall be withdrawn, such former Entry shall remain and continue in full Force.

Preamble, reciting that Distillers sometimes withdraw their Entries whilst their Utensils are left standing, &c.

No Distiller to withdraw his Entry of any Still-house, &c. whilst any Duty is depending, or Utensils standing.

Officers may enter Still-houses by Night, as well as by Day.

Persons obstructing them forfeit 200l.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person actually occupying any House, whether he or she be the Owner or Renter thereof, shall knowingly permit any private Back or Still to be set up and used or Still to be used in their Houses, shall incur the same Penalties as the Persons using the same.

Persons knowingly permitting any private Back

used in any Part of such House, or in any Building thereto belonging, by any Person or Persons whatsoever, for the making of Wort, Wash, or other Liquor for Distillation, or of any Low Wines or Spirits, without a due Entry being previously made thereof at the proper Office of Excise, as is by Law required, such Occupier shall incur and be subject to the same Pains and Penalties as are by Law directed to be inflicted on the Person or Persons actually using any such Back or Still.

'XLVI. And, in regard the said Privilege and Exemption is hereby granted for the Purpose of promoting Agriculture and Improvement, for assisting to rear and support Cattle, and for accommodating the Inhabitants of the said Places, Parishes, and Districts, with Spirits drawn from their own Grain at moderate Rates, so as all Pretence for the Commission of Frauds against his Majesty's Revenue may be removed:' Therefore, in order to prevent all such Frauds, and the Abuses of the said Privilege and Exemption; be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall not be lawful or allowable to the said Commissioners to grant Licences under this Act to any Person or Persons who are Tenants or Taxmen, unless such Person or Persons shall produce, with their Application, a Certificate subscribed by their real Landlord or Landlords, and also by a Justice of Peace of the County where they live, recommending him, her, or them, as proper Persons to receive such Licences.

And, still more effectually to answer the Purposes before expressed,' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Spirits manufactured by such licensed Distiller shall be exported, or carried, or sold, out of the Bounds of the several Counties, Districts, Parishes, or Places before described; and in case any such Spirits shall be found out of the said Bounds, the same shall be, ipso facto, forfeited, and are hereby directed to be seized, and treated according to the Rules of Excise in common Cases of Forfeiture; providing also, That it shall not be lawful to the said licensed Distillers to keep, have, or use more than one Still, or to remove the same to any other Place, contrary to the Tenor or Direction of their respective Licences; as also that it shall not be lawful for such licensed Distillers to use or consume any other Grain than the Growth or Produce of the Parish or District (to be mentioned and described in the Licence to be taken out in Manner aforesaid) where he resides; neither shall it be lawful to him, her, or them, to purchase Spirits from one another; or to purchase or receive into their Stock, Spirits made by any other Persons whatever; and in case of any Offence against this Prohibition, and due Conviction thereof, the said Persons shall forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds, one Moiety whereof shall go to the Poor of the Parish where the Offence shall be committed, and the other Moiety to the Informer; and further, that the said Distillers, upon such Conviction, shall lose the Benefit of his, her, or their Licences, and be incapable of having the same renewed, and shall also forfeit his, her, or their Still and Implements, the Value whereof shall be divided between the Poor of the Parish and the Informer, in the same Manner as the Penalty aforesaid; which Penalties are to be levied upon the Goods of the Distillers, and, failing of Goods sufficient for the Purpose, their Persons are to be imprisoned and detained, without the Benefit of Cessio Bonorum, or the Act for the Relief of the Royal Burghs, commonly called The Act of Grace, or other Relief whatever: Providing also, That if any such licensed Tenant, Possessor, or Taxman of Land, shall be convicted of wilfully keeping or working a Still larger, or of more Content, than is specified in his Licence, or of keeping or working two or more Stills, contrary to the foregoing Prohibition, then, and in that Case, the immediate Landlord or Proprietor of the Ground or Place upon which the said Fraud has been committed, shall be obliged to make good the Penalty or Remainder thereof, after the Sale of the Offender's Goods in Manner before mentioned, reserving to the said Landlords due Relief against the Persons and Properties of their said offending Tenants, in the same Manner as is herein-before provided for Relief of the Heritors of Parishes against unlicensed and fraudulent Distillers within their Bounds.

and if any prohibited Goods are contained therein, they shall be forfeited, &c.

'XXIX. And

'XXIX. And whereas by an Act, made in the twenty-first Year of his Majesty's Reign, and other 'subsequent Acts of Parliament now in force, the Officers of Excise are impowered to seize Tea and 'Spirits removing without Permits, and the Vessels, Boats, Horses, and other Cattle or Carriages, used 'in the removing thereof, contrary to the said Acts; and it is expedient that his Majesty's Officers of the 'Customs should have the like Power;' be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any Officer or Officers of his Majesty's Customs shall have the like Power to seize and prosecute any Tea or Spirituous Liquors, removed or found removing contrary to the Directions of the said recited Act, or to any other Act now in force, and the Vessels, Boats, Horses, and other Cattle and Carriages employed in removing the same, as is granted by the said recited Act, or any other Act or Acts in force, to any Officer or Officers of Excise; any Thing therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Officers of Customs to have the like Power to seize Tea and Spirits removing without Permits, as the Officers of Excise.

'XXX. And whereas all Horses, Boats, Cattle, or Carriages, made use of in the Removing, Car- 'riage, or Conveyance of other Goods, contrary to the Provisions and Directions of certain other Acts of 'Parliament for preventing Frauds in the Revenue of Customs, in such Cases respectively made and 'provided, are also liable to Forfeiture; which Horses and Carriages are sometimes of small Value, 'and the Expence of keeping and maintaining such Horses from the Time of Seizure till they can be 'condemned by the common Course of Proceeding, is often more than they are worth, by which the 'Officers are and may be discouraged from making such Seizures, to the Prejudice of the publick Re- 'venue;' for Remedy whereof, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Seizures of Horses, Cattle, Carts, Waggons, Boats, and Carriages whatsoever, for being used in the Removing, Carriage, or Conveyance of any Goods, or for any other Cause of Forfeiture, contrary to this or any other Act of Parliament relating to or for preventing Frauds in the Revenue of the Customs, shall and may be examined into, proceeded upon, heard, adjudged, and determined, by and before any two of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace residing near the Place where such Seizure shall be made, in such Manner, and by such and the like Rules, as the Seizure of any Horses, Cattle, or Carriages, liable to Forfeiture for being used in removing, carrying, or conveying of any prohibited or run Goods, may be examined into, and proceeded upon, heard, adjudged, and determined by any Justice or Justices of the Peace, by virtue of any Act of Parliament in force; and such Judgements which shall be given in pursuance of this Act, are hereby declared to be taken and adjudged good, valid, and effectual in the Law, and final to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, and not liable to any Appeal, or any Writ or Writs of Certiorari; any Law, Statute, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Seizures of Horses, Boats, &c. for removing of customable Goods, &c. shall be determined by two Justices.

XXXI. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That so much of an Act of Parliament, made in the twenty-first Year of the Reign of his present Majesty King George the Third, or any other Act now in force, which enacts, That all Tea, which shall be seized and arrested by any Officer of the Customs for any Cause of Forfeiture, in any Part of England, Dominion of Wales, or the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, shall be sent and deposited in some Warehouse or Warehouses, to be appointed for that Purpose by the respective Commissioners of the Customs in England or Scotland, within the City of London or Edinburgh respectively, in order to be there publickly sold, shall be, and the same is hereby repealed; and that it shall and may be lawful for the said respective Commissioners to cause all such Tea, so seized and condemned according to Law, to be sold publickly to the best Bidder, at such Places as they shall think proper, in the same Manner as they might have done, if the said recited Act, or any other Act requiring such Tea to be sent to London or Edinburgh for that Purpose, had not been made; any Thing therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Part of Act 21 Geo. 3, Cap. 55, repealed.

XXXII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said first Day of October, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, if any Officer of his Majesty's Navy, Customs, or Excise, shall make any collusive Seizure, or shall deliver up, or shall make any Agreement to deliver up, or not to seize any Ship or Vessel, or any Goods liable to Forfeiture by this or any other Act of Parliament, or shall directly or indirectly take or receive any Bribe, Gratuity, Recompence, or Reward, for the Neglect or Non-performance of his Duty, every such Officer therein offending shall, for each and every Offence, forfeit the Sum of five hundred Pounds, and be rendered incapable of serving his Majesty in any Office or Employment, Civil or Military; and if any Person or Persons whatsoever shall give, offer, or promise to give, any Bribe, Recompence, or Reward to, or make any collusive Agreement with, any Officer of the Navy, Customs, or Excise, to do, conceal, or connive at, any Act whereby any of the Provisions made by this or any other Act of Parliament relative to his Majesty's Customs or Excise, may be evaded or broken, every such Person or Persons shall, for each and every such Offence (whether the same Offer, Proposal, Promise, or Agreement, be accepted or performed or not), forfeit the Sum of five hundred Pounds.

Officers making any collusive Seizure, or agreeing not to seize any Ship or Goods, or taking any Bribe, shall forfeit 500l. and be incapacitated;
And every Person giving or offering such Bribe, shall forfeit 500l.

XXXIII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Ships, Vessels, Boats, and Goods, forfeited by this Act, or by the before-mentioned Act, made in the nineteenth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Customs or Excise; and the same, and the several Forfeitures and Penalties herein-before inflicted, shall be, one Moiety to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to any Officer or Officers of the Customs or Excise who shall sue and prosecute for the same; and shall and may be sued for, prosecuted, condemned, recovered and applied, (except otherwise directed by this Act), in the Manner directed by an Act made in the third Year of the Reign of his present Majesty (intituled, An Act for the further Improvement of his Majesty's Revenue of Customs; and for the Encouragement of Officers making Seizures; and for the Prevention of the clandestine Running of Goods into any Part of his Majesty's Dominions); and all such Ships, Vessels, and Boats, shall, upon Condemnation, be broken up or destroyed, or used and disposed of in the same Manner, and shall be subject to the same Rules and Restrictions, in all Respects not altered by this Act, as Ships or Vessels of the Burthen of one hundred Tons, or any lesser Burthen, are subject and liable to by Law.

Vessels and Goods forfeited by this Act, or by 19 Geo. 3, Cap. 69, may be seized by any Officer of Customs or Excise.

3 Geo. 3, Cap. 22.

Condemned Vessels, if fit for his Majesty's Service, may be sold to the Officers appointed by the Admiralty, &c.

XXXIV. Provided nevertheless, in case any Ship or Vessel, liable to be broken up or destroyed, shall be necessary and fit for the Service of his Majesty in his Royal Navy, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Customs or Excise respectively, if they think proper, to cause such Ship or Vessel, instead of being broken up or destroyed, to be sold to the Officers appointed by the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners of the Admiralty, or Commissioners of the Navy, for that Purpose, and to direct one Moiety of the Produce of such Sale, after the Charges of Condemnation and other Charges are deducted, to be paid into the Exchequer, to the Use of his Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Officer who sued and prosecuted for the same.

Recital of 23 Geo. 3, Cap. 70.

'XXXV. And whereas, by an Act made and passed in the twenty-third Year of the Reign of his 'present Majesty (intituled, An Act for the more effectual preventing the illegal Importation of Foreign 'Spirits, and for putting a Stop to the private Distillation of British made Spirituous Liquors; for explaining 'such Part of the Act, imposing a Duty upon Male Servants, as relates to the Right of Appeal from the Justices 'of the Peace; to amend and rectify a Mistake in an Act of the last Session of Parliament, with respect to the 'Removal of Tea from one Part of this Kingdom to other Parts thereof; and for preventing vexatious Actions 'against Officers of Excise acting in pursuance of the Authority given by Excise Statutes), divers Regulations 'are made for the more effectual preventing vexatious Suits against the Officers of Excise, and their 'Assistants, acting under the Authorities and Powers to them given by the several Statutes made for 'securing the Duties of Excise and Inland Duties; which Regulations ought to be extended to Officers 'of the Customs, and their Assistants, acting under the Authorities and Powers to them given by the 'several Statutes made for securing the Duties of the Customs;' be it enacted, That all and every Clause, Matter, and Regulation, in the said Act contained, touching and concerning any Action to be brought against any Officer or Officers of the Excise, or against any Person or Persons acting by his or their Order, and in his or their Aid, for any Thing done in the Execution of, or by reason of his or their Office, or any Proceeding thereupon, shall be extended to all Actions to be brought against any Officer or Officers of the Customs, or against any Person or Persons acting by his or their Order, and in his or their Aid, for any Thing done in the Execution of, or by reason of their Office, and to all Proceedings in every such Action, in as full and ample Manner as if the Officers of the Customs had been named and included in the said Act.

All the Regulations in the recited Act touching Actions to be brought against Excise Officers, and their Aiders, extended to Officers of the Customs, &c.

'XXXVI. And whereas, upon Seizures made by Officers of the Customs and Excise, which are re-'turned into the Court of Exchequer, groundless and vexatious Claims are frequently entered in fictitious 'Names by Persons who have not any Property in the Goods, whereby the publick Revenue and the Of-'ficers making such Seizures are put to great Expence in the Prosecution and Condemnation thereof;' for Remedy whereof, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the first Day of October, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, no Claim shall be permitted to be entered to any Ship, Vessel, or Goods, seized for any Cause of Forfeiture, and returned into his Majesty's Courts of Exchequer in England or Scotland respectively, unless such Claim is entered in the true and real Name or Names of the Owner or Owners, or Proprietor or Proprietors of the Ship, Vessel, or Goods so claimed, describing the Place of the Residence, and the Business or Profession of such Person or Persons; and if such Person or Persons shall reside at London or Edinburgh, or within the Liberties thereof, Oath shall be made before one of the Barons of the said Courts of Exchequer respectively, that the Ship, Vessel, or Goods so claimed, was really and truly the Property of him, her, or them, at the Time of such Seizure; but if such Person or Persons shall not be resident in London or Edinburgh, or the Liberties thereof, then, and in such Case, Oath shall be made, in like Manner, by the Agent or Attorney, or Solicitor by whom such Claim shall be entered, that he has full and legal Authority and Directions from such Owner or Proprietor to enter such Claim, and that, to the best of his Knowledge and Belief, such Ship, Vessel, or Goods were, at the Time of the Seizure thereof, bona fide, and truly, the real Property of the Person or Persons in whose Name or Names such Claim is entered; which Oath shall be respectively indorsed and certified on the Back of the Indenture of Appraisement upon which such Claim shall be entered; and on Failure thereof, the Ship, Vessel, or Goods, shall be absolutely condemned, and Judgement shall be entered thereon by Default, according to the usual Method of Proceedings of the Court, in the same Manner as if no Claim had been entered thereto; and every Person or Persons who shall be convicted of making or taking a false Oath to any of the Facts herein-before directed or required to be sworn, shall be deemed guilty of Perjury, and shall be liable to the Pains and Penalties to which Persons are liable for wilful and corrupt Perjury.

From Oct. 1, 1784, no Claim to be entered to any Vessel or Goods seized, and returned into the Exchequer, unless in the real Names of the Owners or Proprietors thereof. Oath to be made by the Owners before a Baron of the Exchequer, or by the Agent or Solicitor, as to the Property thereof.

Penalty on taking a false Oath.

Recital of 3 Geo. 3, Cap. 22.

'XXXVII. And whereas by an Act, made in the third Year of his Majesty's Reign (intituled, An Act 'for the further Improvement of his Majesty's Revenue of Customs; and for the Encouragement of Officers mak-'ing Seizures; and for the Prevention of the clandestine Running of Goods into any Part of his Majesty's Do-'minions), it is, amongst other Things, enacted, That every Person, upon Entry of any Claim in the 'Court where any Seizure shall be prosecuted, shall be obliged to give Security in the Penalty of sixty 'Pounds, to answer and pay the Costs occasioned by such Claim: And whereas the Penalty of sixty 'Pounds, in many Cases, is not sufficient to answer the Costs occasioned by such Claim, and the Per-'sons who enter into Recognizances as the Securities for such Costs, are very often hired for that Pur-'pose, and are not of Substance or Ability to answer and pay the Costs for which they are Security, and 'frequently abscond and are not to be found, so that no Part of the Costs can be recovered from them, 'to the Diminution of the publick Revenue, and the great Loss and Discouragement of Officers making 'such Seizures;' for Remedy whereof, it is further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the first Day of October, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, upon the Entry of any Claim to any Ship, Boat, or other Vessel, or to any Goods seized for any Cause of Forfeiture, the Person or Persons who shall enter the Claim as the Owners or Proprietors thereof (in case such Claimant shall reside in the Kingdom of Great Britain), shall be bound, with two other sufficient Securities, in the Penalty of one

From Oct. 1, 1784, every Claimant of any Vessel or Goods seized (if resident in Great Britain) shall be bound, with two Sureties, in a Penalty of 100*l.* to pay Costs; but if not resident, his Attorney shall be bound in like Manner.

one hundred Pounds, to answer and pay the Costs occasioned by such Claim; and if such Owner or Proprietor shall not reside in Great Britain, then, and in such Case, the Attorney or Solicitor, by whose Directions such Claim shall be entered, shall, in like Manner, be bound with two other sufficient Securities in the like Penalty, to answer and pay the Costs occasioned by such Claim; any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Penalties and Forfeitures how to be recovered and applied.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That one Moiety of the several Penalties and Forfeitures in this Act mentioned shall be to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety shall be to the Use of such Person and Persons as shall inform, prosecute, or sue for the same (except in such Cases where any other Appropriation or Distribution of the said Penalties is made by this Act, or by any other Act or Acts); and that all the same Penalties and Forfeitures shall and may be prosecuted and sued for, and the Causes and Controversies arising thereupon tried, heard, and determined in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer at Edinburgh respectively (except where any Provision is made to the contrary by this or any other Law or Statute now in force), wherein no Essoin, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, shall be allowed.

Limitation of Actions.

XXXIX. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Action or Suit shall be brought or commenced against any Person or Persons, for any Matter or Thing by him or them done or executed by virtue of or in pursuance of this Act, such Action or Suit shall be commenced within three Months next after the Matter or Thing done, and shall be laid in the proper County; and the Defendant or Defendants in such Action or Suit shall and may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereon, and that the same was done in pursuance of, and by Authority of this Act; and if afterwards a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become nonsuited, or discontinue his, her, or their Action or Prosecution, or Judgement shall be given against him, her, or them, upon Demurrer or otherwise, then such Defendant or Defendants shall have Treble Costs awarded to him, her, or them, against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs.

General Issue.

Treble Costs.

No Prosecution to be commenced for any pecuniary Penalty incurred by Offences against the Customs or Excise Laws, committed before June 24, 1784.

'XL. And whereas many Persons, having incurred heavy Penalties by reason of Offences committed 'against the Laws for collecting and securing the Revenue of Customs and Excise, are deterred from re- 'nouncing their evil Courses, through Fear of being discovered by some of their Associates, and thereby 'subjected to Prosecution; and other Persons are confined in Prison for Penalties and Fines set upon 'them in consequence of their having been convicted of such Offences, which they are unable to pay; 'and many, to avoid such Penalties and Forfeitures, have withdrawn themselves into foreign Parts, and 'Process of Outlawry may have issued against some of them: And whereas it is expedient to extend a 'Pardon and Indemnity to Persons under the aforesaid Circumstances;' be it therefore enacted, That no Prosecution by Bill, Plaint, Information, or Action of Debt, shall be commenced for any pecuniary Penalty or Forfeiture, incurred by reason of any Offence committed by any Person or Persons against any of the Provisions of any Act or Acts for collecting and securing the Duties under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs or Excise, committed before the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, but that the said Penalties and Forfeitures shall be wholly pardoned and released.

His Majesty's Share of all Fines due on former Convictions, discharged.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That as to all Penalties or Fines now due on any former Conviction, upon any of the Acts aforesaid, or which may become due in consequence of Prosecutions now carrying on, the same shall be pardoned and discharged, so far as regards the Share or Interest of such Penalty or Fine given to his Majesty; and that all Persons against whom any Process of Outlawry hath been sued out for the Matters aforesaid, may be at Liberty to apply, by Motion, to the Court out of which such Process issued, to set aside or reverse the same.

Persons outlawed may apply to the proper Court to have the Process reversed.

If any Person, after claiming the Benefit of this Act, shall bring an Action against any Officer of the Navy, &c. for any Thing done on Occasion of the Offences intended to be released by this Act, such Officer may plead the General Issue, and recover Costs of Suit.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons who shall claim the Benefit of this Act, shall, after such Claim, bring or commence, or cause to be brought or commenced, any Action, Plaint, Information, or other Prosecution whatsoever, against any Officer of his Majesty's Navy, or in the Service of the Customs or Excise, or other Person who shall have aided or assisted any such Officer, for or concerning any Act, Matter, or Thing, done or committed by them, or any of them, on Occasion of, or for or by Reason or Means of any of the Offences, Frauds, Misdemeanors, or other Matters or Things intended to be released and discharged by this Act, such Claim is and shall be deemed to be an absolute Discharge and Release to such Officer or other Person of and from all and every such Actions, Suits, and Prosecutions; and such Officer and other Person may plead the General Issue, and give the Special Matter in Evidence; and the said Officer or other Person shall recover his Costs of Suit against the Person or Persons so bringing or commencing such Action or Prosecution.

Not to extend to Offences for which the Offender is liable to corporal punishment.

XLIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to discharge or release any Indictment, Outlawry, or other Process, for or by reason of any Felony, or other indictable Offence against the Laws for the Protection of the Revenue of the Customs or Excise, or of the Officers employed therein, for which the Offender is liable to corporal Punishment, and not to a pecuniary Penalty only.

Other Matters to which this Act shall not extend.

XLIV. Provided also, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to discharge or release any Seizure of any Kind of Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes, or of Ships, Vessels, or Boats, or other Thing whatsoever, or any Prosecution now depending for the Forfeiture of such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, Ships, Vessels, Boats, or other Things, under any Act or Acts of Parliament now in force; nor to acquit, release, or discharge, any Judgement or Judgements where the Monies, or other

CAP. LV.

An Act to explain and amend an Act, made in the twenty-second Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the amending and rendering more effectual the Laws in being relative to Houses of Correction.

Preamble. Recital of 22 Geo. 3, Cap. 64.

'WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the twenty-second Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the amending and rendering more effectual the Laws in being relative to Houses of Correction; reciting, amongst other Things, That in many Counties the Houses of Correction were insufficient in Number or deficient in Building, and the Apartments in them were very ill accommodated to the Purposes for which they were intended, by Means whereof, and from a Want of due Order, Employment, and Discipline in such Houses of Correction, the Persons sent thither for Correction and Reformation frequently grew more dissolute and abandoned during their Continuance in such Houses, it was enacted, That the Justices of Peace in every County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty, and Precinct, within England and Wales, at their respective Quarter Sessions of the Peace, to be holden next after Midsummer from the Time of passing the said Act, should, and they were thereby required to nominate one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace, within their respective Jurisdictions, Divisions, or Districts, whom they should think most proper, to examine and inspect the several Houses of Correction within the same; and the Justice or Justices so to be nominated were required carefully and diligently to inspect the same with all convenient Speed, and report his or their Opinion to the Justices of their respective Jurisdictions at the Michaelmas Quarter Sessions then next following (as to the State and Condition thereof, and the Increase of Number, or Additions or Alterations which they might judge necessary to make them more convenient and useful, having regard to the classing of the several Persons who should be kept there, according to the Nature of their Crimes and Punishments, and to the providing proper Places for the Employment of such Persons who were committed to hard Labour, and to the keeping every Part of such Prisons clean and wholesome; and the said Justice or Justices so to be nominated, were thereby required to employ proper and skilful Persons to make Plans and Estimates of new Buildings, or the Additions or Alterations which he or they should think necessary in the present Buildings, to make them answer the several Purposes of the said Act; which Plans, together with the Report of the said Justice or Justices, were to be laid before the Court at the said Michaelmas Quarter Sessions; or if, from any Difficulties or Accidents, such Reports should not happen to be made at that Sessions, then, and in that Case, the same should be made at or before the Epiphany Quarter Sessions then next following); which Court was thereby authorised and required to consider the same, and if they approved such Plans, they might adjourn the Quarter Sessions to a further Day, for receiving Proposals from Persons inclined to undertake such Work, of which due Notice should be published, and then to contract with such Persons whom they should think most proper to do the same, or if they disapproved such Plans or Estimates, to direct such others to be made as they should think fit, and adjourn their Quarter Sessions to some further Day, to receive such new Plans and Estimates, and also Proposals from Persons inclined to undertake the Work; and the Justices, in settling and adjusting such Plans, were thereby required to provide separate Apartments for all Persons committed upon Charges of Felony, or convicted of any Theft or Larceny, and committed to the House of Correction for Punishment by hard Labour, under or by virtue of the Laws in being, in order to prevent any Communication between them and the other Prisoners; and also proper Apartments, covered or open, as should be found most convenient, for employing the several Persons who were to be kept to hard Labour; and they were also to provide separate Apartments, in each Division of the said House of Correction, for the Women who should be committed thither; and the said Justices, at their General Quarter Sessions, were thereby impowered, from Time to Time, upon any such Report to them made, to make such Order thereupon as to them should seem just, and the Nature of the Case might require: And whereas the Justices of the Peace, within many of the said Jurisdictions, have omitted to make such Nomination, and to cause the necessary Examinations, Inspections, and Proceedings to be made within the Times prescribed by the said Act, whereby the wholesome Regulations, and the Benefit intended by the said Act, will be lost to the Publick within such Jurisdictions, unless further Time be given for that Purpose;' for Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the Justices of the Peace for any County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty, or Precinct, within England and Wales, who have omitted to examine and inspect into the State of the Houses of Correction within their respective Limits, and to proceed in repairing, altering, and regulating the same, according to the Directions and Intention of the said recited Act, to enquire into, examine, inspect, and fully to execute and enforce the same, at the next or any subsequent Quarter Session of the Peace to be holden after the passing of this Act, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as they could or might have done if they had proceeded therein at the Quarter Sessions held next after Midsummer, Michaelmas, or Christmas, from the Time of passing the said Act; any Thing therein, or in any other Act, contained to the contrary thereof in any-wise notwithstanding.

Justices who have not inspected into the State of the Houses of Correction within their Limits, according to the Directions of the recited Act, may do it, and execute the same, at the next Quarter Sessions, &c.

'II. And whereas the Expences of building, rebuilding, enlarging, or removing and fitting up Houses of Correction, may in some Cases become very burthensome on the Occupiers of Land, and other the Contributors to the County Rates, in case the said Expences should be raised in the Manner hereinbefore mentioned;' be it therefore enacted, That where it shall appear that the Amount of any Estimate, approved approved by the Justices, for the building, rebuilding, enlarging, or removing, and fitting up any House or Houses of Correction, under the Powers of this Act, shall exceed one Half of the Amount of the ordinary annual Assessment for the County Rate for any County, Riding, Division, City, Town, Liberty, or Precinct (such ordinary Assessment to be taken on a mean Proportion of the said Rate for the last five Years preceding), that then, and in such Case, it shall and may be lawful for the Justices of the Peace, within the respective Limits of their Commissions, so assembled in their Quarter Sessions as aforesaid, from Time to Time to borrow and take up on Mortgage of the Rates herein-mentioned, by Instruments in the Form contained in the Schedule hereunto annexed, or to that or the like Effect, any Sums not less than fifty Pounds, nor exceeding one hundred Pounds each, at legal or lower Interest, as to them, or the major Part of them, such major Part not being less than five, shall appear necessary and expedient for the Purposes aforesaid, and to secure all and every such Sum and Sums of Money so borrowed upon the Credit of the Rates to be raised upon such County, Riding, Division, City, Town, Liberty, and Precinct respectively; and the said Justices, so assembled as aforesaid, are hereby authorised to treat and agree with any Person or Persons for the Loan of any such Sum or Sums of Money, and by their Order to confirm and establish every such Agreement as aforesaid; and every such Agreement so established by such Order, and signed by the Chairman and two or more Justices present at the Time of making such Order, shall be, and the same is hereby declared to be effectual for securing to the Person or Persons so advancing any Sum or Sums of Money, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, all and every such Sum or Sums of Money, with Interest for the same, on such Terms as in and by such Agreement or Agreements respectively shall be for that Purpose stipulated; and Copies or Extracts of all such Agreements or Securities shall be kept with the Clerk of the Peace, or other proper Officer having the Custody of the Records of the Quarter Sessions, of such County, Riding, Division, City, Town, Liberty, or Precinct respectively; and all and every Person and Persons to whom any such Security or Securities shall be made, or who shall be intitled to the Money thereby secured, is and are hereby impowered (by indorsing his, her, or their Name or Names on the Back of such Security or Securities) to transfer and assign the same, and his, her, or their Right to the principal Money and Interest thereby secured, unto any Person or Persons; and every such Assignee may in like Manner transfer the same again, and so toties quoties; and the Person or Persons to whom such Security or Securities, or any such Assignment thereof, shall be made, and his, her, or their respective Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, shall be Creditors upon the said Rates, in an equal Degree one with another, and shall not have any Preference with respect to the Priority of any Monies so advanced.

When the Amount of any Estimate for building, enlarging, &c. shall be very high, the Justices in Session may mortgage the Rates, &c.

Agreements by Order of the Justices, signed by the Chairman, &c. to be an effectual Security.

Securities may be transferred.

III. And be it further enacted, That the said Justices shall, and they are hereby authorised and required, not only to charge the Rates to be raised upon such County, Riding, Division, City, Town, Liberty, or Precinct, with the Interest of the Money so borrowed on such Securities, but also with the Payment of a further Sum, equal at least to the Sum so charged for the Interest of such Securities; which said Sums shall be assessed on such County, Riding, Division, City, Town, Liberty, or Precinct, in such Manner as County Rates are directed to be assessed by the Laws now in being, and paid and applied, under the Direction of the said Justices, in Discharge of the Interest, and of so many of the principal Sums on the said Securities as such Money will extend to discharge in each Year, until the Whole of the Money for which such Securities shall be made, and the Interest thereof, shall be fully paid and discharged; and the said Justices are required to fix one or more Day or Days in each Year, on which such Payment shall be made, and shall make Orders for Assessments in due Time, so as to provide for the regular Payment thereof; and they are hereby required to appoint a proper Person to keep an exact and regular Account of all the Receipts and Payments under the Authority of this Act, in a Book or Books separate and apart from all other Accounts, and the same to settle and adjust in such Manner that it may easily be seen what Interest is growing due, and what principal Money has been discharged, and what remains due; and the said Book or Books, so adjusted and settled, to deliver into Court at every General or Quarter Sessions to be held for any such County, Riding, Division, City, Town, Liberty, or Precinct; and the said Justices are required, at every such Sessions, carefully to inspect all such Accounts, and make Orders for carrying the several Purposes of this Act into Execution, in such Manner as to them shall seem meet; and if at any Time it shall appear to the said Justices that the Person so appointed has neglected the said Order, and has not duly, and without Delay, applied the Money in his Hands to the Purposes hereby directed, such Person shall forfeit double the Amount of the Money which shall not have been applied to the Purposes of this Act; and the said Justices, so assembled in Session as aforesaid, shall direct in what Order such Securities shall be discharged, by drawing Lots or otherwise, as they shall think fit, first discharging all such Securities which shall bear the highest Interest.

To what Extent the Justices may charge the County Rates.

A regular Account to be entered in a Book of all Receipts and Payments under this Act; which shall be inspected by the Justices at every Sessions, &c.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Justices of the Peace in their respective Quarter Sessions shall, and they are hereby required to make Provisions by means of the Rates (which they are hereby authorised to make), and by their Orders and Directions (which they are hereby authorised to give), in such Manner that the whole Money to be borrowed under the Authority of this Act, shall be fully paid and discharged within a Time to be limited, not exceeding fourteen Years from the Time of borrowing the same.

Money borrowed under this Act to be paid within a limited Time.

V. And be it further enacted, That in Cases where such Houses of Correction shall be pulled down, repaired, rebuilt, or enlarged, by the Authority of this Act, or any other Law in being, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Justices, in their Quarter Sessions assembled, to sell and dispose of the Materials of such old Houses of Correction, or such Parts thereof, and also of the Whole, or such Parts of the Scite or Ground belonging thereto as shall not be necessary to be used for or in the rebuilding, repairing, or enlarging such Houses of Correction, at the best Price or Prices that can or may be gotten for the same; which Monies shall be applied to the Purposes of this Act; and in case of any such Purchase

Subject to 2,497 l. 8 s. 3 d. to be paid as aforesaid.

When the said Sums shall be paid into the Exchequer.

XII. His Majesty may grant the Superiorities of certain Estates to the Duke of Argyle, on Condition of his paying certain Sums into the Exchequer;

'XVI. And whereas, for the Relief of certain smaller Vassals, who held their Lands and Heretages of some 'of those attainted Persons, from the Expence and Burden of making up their Titles by Precepts from the 'Chancery, and Charters from the Crown, an Act was passed in the second Year of the Reign of his pre- 'sent Majesty, intituled, An Act for Relief of the Vassals of the several Estates which are or may be annexed to 'the Crown, by virtue of an Act passed in the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty; and for carry- 'ing the Purposes of the said Act more effectually into Execution; which, inter alia, empowered the Commis- 'sioners and Trustees for managing the said Estates to receive Resignations, and grant new Charters con- 'taining Precepts of Sasine, and also to grant all other Charters, Precepts of clare constat, and other Writ- 'ings whatsoever, necessary or competent for completing the Titles of the aforesaid Vassals, their Heirs 'and singular Successors, in their Lands and other Heretages respectively, to be holden Feu or Blench of 'his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in the same Way and Manner as the said Lands and Heretages 'were then holden, or might be holden of his Majesty; and which Charters, Precepts of Sasine, and Pre- 'cepts of clare constat, to be granted by such Commissioners and Trustees, were thereby declared to be as 'valid and effectual to the said Vassals, their Heirs and singular Successors, for completing their Infeft- 'ments in their Lands and Heretages aforesaid, as if the said Infeftments had proceeded upon Charters 'and Precepts under the Seal appointed by the Treaty of Union to be kept in Scotland in place of the Great 'Seal, or upon Precepts from the Chancery: And it was further declared, that the Compositions payable 'by these small Vassals should be applied by the said Commissioners for the same Uses and Purposes as the 'other Rents, Profits, and Casualties of the said annexed Estates; provided always, that it should be com- 'petent to the Vassals of the said Estates, their Heirs and singular Successors, or any of them, if they should 'think fit, to make up their Titles to their respective Lands by Precepts from the Chancery, or Charters 'under the Seal, in the same Way and Manner as was competent to other Vassals of the Crown:' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such of the said Vassals of the Estates of Perth, Cromarty, or Strowan, as have made up their Titles by Special Services and Precepts from the Chancery, or by Charters from the Crown, since the Forfeiture, and their Successors in the Lands mentioned in such Services, Precepts, or Charters, shall be considered as Crown Vassals to all Intents and Purposes, and shall not now be obliged to hold of the Subject Superiors; without Prejudice, however, to their being obliged to pay their Feu Duties to those Superiors; but that all others who formerly held their Lands under the Owners of any of the said forfeited Estates, shall still continue as Sub-vassals under those Persons in whose Favour the said Estates are now to be granted; and the said Act of his present Majesty is hereby repealed, so far as it gives them an Option to hold of the Crown.

His Majesty may grant the Lands of Pitkellony along with the Estate of Perth, &c.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That where any of the said Estates now intended to be restored are held of Subject Superiors, the several Persons, their Heirs or Assigns, in whose Favour the Grants are to be made, shall be intitled to receive their first Charters, in virtue of the Dispositions by his Majesty, from the said Subject Superiors of whom the Lands are respectively held, for Payment of no higher Dues or Casualties than are usually given upon Entries of Heirs, or than those Persons would be obliged to pay if they were entering as Heirs to their several Predecessors.

Clause relative to those Estates which are held of Subject Superiors.

'XIX. And whereas, by the said Act of the twenty-fifth of his late Majesty, and by the Commissioners 'and Instructions afterwards granted by his Majesty to the said Board of Trustees, Power was given to the 'said

An Act for repealing so much of an Act made in the last Session of Parliament as relates to the Distillation of Corn Spirits in small Stills, in certain Counties or Districts of the Highlands in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; and for authorising the Commissioners of Excise in Scotland to grant Licences, to Persons living in the said Counties or Districts, to distil Spirits from Barley, Bear, or Big, the Growth of the said Counties; and for imposing a Duty on such Licences.

24 Geo. 3. c. 46, recited.

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, (intituled, An Act to discontinue, for a limited Time, the Payment of the Duties upon Low Wines and Spirits for Home Consumption, and for granting and securing the due Payment of other Duties in lieu thereof; and for the better Regulation of the making and vending British Spirits, as well for Home Consumption as for Exportation; and for destroying all Home-made and Foreign Spirits, after the Condemnation thereof; and for vesting in his Majesty the Duties of Excise within the Lands of Ferintosh, in the County of Inverness; and for discontinuing, for a limited Time, certain Imposts and Duties upon Rum and Spirits imported from the West Indies); it was, among other 'Things, enacted, That it should and might be lawful for the Commissioners of the Excise, in that Part of 'Great Britain called Scotland, or the major Part of them, notwithstanding the several former Acts and 'Statutes then subsisting in relation to the distilling and manufacturing Spirits from Corn, and notwith-'standing the Provisoes and Regulations in that Act, to authorise and impower such Number of Persons as 'they should judge proper and expedient, within the Highland Parishes or Districts of the Counties therein 'mentioned, to erect, keep, and work Stills, the cubical Contents of which, including the Head, should 'not exceed twenty Gallons, English Measure, or at the most thirty Gallons, nor in any Case be of less 'than the first mentioned Size: And whereas it now appears that the Purposes which the said Act was 'intended to answer, with respect to the Revenue, and the Improvements of Agriculture in the Parishes 'and Districts aforesaid, have been in a great Measure defeated by the Variety of Restrictions therein con-'tained, and particularly by the Size of the Stills being too small;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the said Act as particularly respects the Highland Counties of Scotland, shall be and the same is hereby repealed, and that no Action for Penalties incurred shall be brought in Terms thereof.

So much of the recited Act, as respects the Highlands of Scotland, repealed.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That upon the first Day of December one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, or as soon as may be in the Course of that Month, and so from Year to Year thereafter, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Excise in Scotland, or the major Part of them, by Licences under their Hands, to authorise Persons, qualified as herein after mentioned, within the several Counties of Orkney, Caithness, Sutherland, Ross, Cromarty, Inverness, Argyle, Bute, Stirling, Clackmannan, Perth, Dumbarton, Aberdeen, Forfar, Kinkardine, Banff, Nairn, and Elgin (excepting those Parts of the Counties of Dumbarton, Stirling, Clackmannan, and Perth, herein after described), to erect, keep, and work Stills, the cubical Contents of which respectively shall not be less than thirty, nor more than forty Gallons of English Measure, including their respective Heads, and to distil and draw off Spirits from the Barley, Bear, or Big, of the Growth of the said Counties, during the Term of one Year, and for no longer or shorter Space, from the Date of the Commission or Licence, and to use, sell, and dispose of the Spirits so distilled, subject to the Restrictions and Regulations, and on Payment of a Composition or Licence Duty at the Rate of twenty Shillings Sterling for each English Gallon of the Content of such Still, for the Space aforesaid, and that in Place of the whole Rates and Duties imposed on the distilling of Corn Spirits, and upon the Malt or Grain from which the Spirits are extracted; but declaring that the licensed Distillers shall not be allowed any Drawback or Deduction from the above Duty, on account of their, or either of them, having bought from any entered Maltster any Part of the Malt to be used by them, and for which the ordinary Duties upon Malt have been paid, or are due.

Licences may be granted annually, by the Commissioners of Excise in Scotland, within certain Highland Counties, for distilling Corn Spirits.

Size of the Stills.

'III. And, for the better ascertaining the Persons to whom such Licences may be granted, the Conditions 'under which they are to be obtained, and the Powers of the Commissioners of Excise, and others, with 'respect to the granting thereof,' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, within two Months after the passing of this Act, the Heritors of each Parish, within which such licensed Stills are to be permitted, or Persons duly authorised to act for them, shall assemble in the Parish Church, previous Notice of the Day and Hour and Purpose of such Meeting being given by Advertisement, signed by the Collector of the Excise of the Bounds, and by one or more of the principal Heritors of the Parish, or their Factors, and affixed on the Church Doors for two Sundays preceding the Day of Meeting; and shall proceed by a Majority of the Voices, not in point of Number, but according to the Extent of their valued Rents, so that those

The Heritors of each Parish to assemble and make out a List of Persons proper to be licensed.

those who collectively shall have the greatest Extent of valued Rent, shall be deemed to have the Majority of Voices, to make out a List of the Persons within the said Parish to whom such Licences may most properly be granted; which List the Preses or Clerk of the Meeting shall forthwith transmit to the Commissioners of Excise at Edinburgh, and a Copy thereof to the Collector of Excise within whose Bounds the said Parish lies; and the said Commissioners shall have Power to limit the Licences to be granted, in consequence of the said Lists, to such Number as they shall judge the particular Circumstances and Population of each Parish or County shall require, provided the Number be not less than two for each Parish, if so many shall be demanded by the Heritors; which being done, the said Commissioners shall, without Delay, return the said Lists, so approved of or restricted, to the different Collectors of Excise, with Orders to give immediate Notice thereof to the Persons to whom Licences are to be granted, and to require them to find Security as herein after mentioned.

Lists to be transmitted to the Commissioners of Excise at Edinburgh.

IV. And be it enacted, That, in all succeeding Years, the Heritors of each Parish shall assemble for the Purpose of making out the Lists as aforesaid, in the first or second Week of May, at the Parish Church, previous Notice being given of the precise Day and Hour of Meeting by Advertisement on the two preceding Sundays as aforesaid; which Lists shall be transmitted to the Commissioners of Excise, in the Manner before directed, who shall, without Delay, give Notice to the respective Collectors of Excise of the Bounds, to what Extent the Lists are approved of, and who are to be intitled to Licences, on the first Day of December following, or as soon after as may be in the Course of that Month; and the Collector or Collectors shall in like Manner forthwith give the same Notice to the Persons who are to receive the Licences: And if, from Neglect or Inattention, no List shall be transmitted from the Heritors of any Parish to the said Commissioners, the said Commissioners shall nevertheless give Orders to the Collectors of Excise of the Bounds to issue Licences for the ensuing Year to such Persons as they shall think proper, the Number of which Persons shall not be less than two, as before mentioned, if so many are demanded; and those Persons who held them for the preceding Year shall have the Preference, on paying the former Composition, and complying with the other Regulation herein after mentioned.

Heritors to assemble in the Month of May.

If Heritors neglect to transmit Lists, Commissioners to license such Persons as they think proper.

V. Provided always, and it is hereby specially provided and declared, That no Licence shall be granted to any Person to erect or work any Still under this Act, within ten English Statute Miles of any Distillery regularly entered according to the Laws of Excise, and provided such entered Distiller has paid yearly, for the two preceding Years, Duties to the Extent of eight hundred Pounds Sterling yearly, and is going on in the same Business; or who, being in that Business, and within the Distance aforesaid, shall require the Suppression of a small Still, and give Obligation, with sufficient Security, that the Duty to be imposed upon the Distillery, carried on by him, her, or them, shall amount to at least the said yearly Sum of eight hundred Pounds Sterling for two Years to come, the Distance to be computed by the usual publick Road, or by any usual Ferry or Passage by Water.

Power of granting Licences limited.

VI. Provided also, That no Person shall be intitled to a Licence under this Act who shall not, at the Time of his or her Application, produce a Recommendation from the Heritor on whose Property he or she lives, or his Factor, and a Certificate of his or her being a Person of good Character, and reputed in good Circumstances, together with the Name or Names of the Person or Persons proposed to be given as Security for the Payment of the Duty hereby imposed upon his Licence, and of the further Sum of fifty Pounds Sterling, to answer the Payment of such Penalties as he or she may incur.

Conditions to be complied with, &c.

VII. And be it further enacted, That when the Persons who are to obtain Licences in any particular Parish are thus ascertained, they shall be obliged to find Security, to the Satisfaction of the Collector of Excise of the Bounds, that they shall take out their Licences at the Time and in the Manner before directed, and shall make Payment of one Quarter of the said Licence Duty at the Time when the Licence shall be delivered to them, and of another Quarter of the same at the End of each three Months then after, till the whole twenty Shillings is paid for the Year's Licence; and in case they, or either of them, fail to give such Security, with at least one Cautioner bound for him, to the Satisfaction of the Collector as aforesaid, the Person so failing shall not be intitled to the Licence, but in that Case it shall be in the Power of the said Collector to grant a similar Licence to any other Person within the same Parish who shall appear to him sufficiently qualified for the Purpose, and who is willing to pay and find Security as aforesaid, the Collector of Excise always preferring those who have been recommended by the Heritors; and that each Licence so to be issued as aforesaid, shall specify the Name and Place of Residence of the Person who obtains it, the Place at which the Still is to be erected, the Size of such Still, together with an Acknowledgment of the Licence Duty to the above Extent being paid, and Security found for the Penalty, as before directed.

Persons who are to obtain Licences must give Security, &c.

Licence to specify the Name and Residence, &c.

'VIII. And whereas the said Privilege and Exemption are hereby granted for the Purpose of promoting 'Agriculture and Improvement in the said Highland Counties and Districts, and for accommodating the 'Inhabitants thereof with Spirits drawn from their own Grain at moderate Rates; and it has been com- 'puted that a Still of forty Gallons, wrought in the Manner known and practised in those Districts of 'the Country, and during that Part of the Year in which it will commonly be in their Power to work 'them, will manufacture into good Spirits two hundred and fifty Bolls, Linlithgow Measure, of the Barley, 'Bear, or Big, of these Counties, and no more, which will produce, at an Average, one thousand six 'hundred and sixty Gallons of pure Spirits, and that the Produce of smaller Stills will be in a similar Pro- 'portion;' be it therefore enacted, That when a Licence shall be taken out, and the Composition Duty paid for a Still of forty Gallons, such Duty shall be held to be a Composition for the Duty on Malt to the Extent of two hundred and fifty Bolls, Linlithgow Measure, and no more, and for the Duty on the Spirits manufactured in such Still to the Extent of one thousand six hundred and sixty Gallons English, and no more; and when a Licence shall be taken out, and the Composition Duty paid, for any Still of a lesser Computation of the Quantity of Grain made into Spirits yearly by a Still of 40 Gallons, and of the Spirits produced therefrom.

a lesser Size, the like Proportion shall be observed, both as to the Quantity of Malt, and the Quantity of Spirits for which such Duty shall be held to be a Composition; and that for all Malt which shall be used or made by such licensed Distiller, over and above the said Quantity, and for all Spirits which shall be manufactured from such Stills, over and above the Quantity aforesaid, there shall be paid the same Duties to which the entered Maltster and Distiller are, by the Laws of Excise, liable.

Duty to be paid for all Malt and Spirits exceeding those Quantities.

'IX. And, for the more effectually securing to his Majesty's Revenue the Payment of the above mentioned Duties, for all Spirits which the Owners of such Stills shall be able to manufacture beyond the 'Quantity corresponding as aforesaid, to the respective Sizes of the Stills,' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Officers of Excise shall at all Times have full Liberty to enter into and survey the Malt Barns and Distilleries belonging to such licensed Distiller, and to keep an exact Account of the Malt and Spirits manufactured therein, and to charge with the usual Duty all Malt made or used therein, exceeding the Quantity of two hundred and fifty Bolls in the Year, and all Spirits exceeding in Quantity one thousand six hundred and sixty Gallons annually; and that no Spirits shall, from and after the said first Day of December one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, be allowed to pass or be carried from one Place to another within the Counties or Districts aforesaid, to which Counties or Districts the Sale of the Spirits to be manufactured in the Stills to be licensed under this Act is hereby expressly restricted, without being accompanied with a Permit from the proper Officer, expressing the Quantity so permitted to pass, and also mentioning that the same is the Produce of a licensed Still; that the Owner or Owners of such licensed Still or Stills shall, in Consideration of the annual Composition paid by him, her, or them, be intitled to demand free Permits, in the Course of the Year for which such Licences are held, for the Quantity of Spirits before expressed as the Produce of a Still containing forty Gallons, and for a proportional Quantity if the Still be of a lesser Size, but for no more, allowing them to pass any where within the said Counties or Districts; and in so far as Permits are demanded for a greater Quantity, they shall only be obtained on Payment of the Duties chargeable by Law on the entered Distillers and Maltsters.

Excise Officers may enter and survey, &c.

No Spirits to be removed, within the before mentioned Districts, without a Permit.

'X. And, for the more effectually preventing the Spirits which may be distilled by virtue of this Act, 'from interfering with or prejudicing the Trade of the entered Distillers, who carry on their Business 'subject to the Payment of those Duties which are imposed by the Laws of Excise;' be it enacted, That no Still shall be licensed in the Counties of Dumbarton, Stirling, Clackmannan, and Perth, to the East or Right Hand of a Line beginning at the Boat of Baloch, where Loch Lomond runs into the River Leven, and proceeding along the great Military Road from thence by Bucklivie, to the Town of Stirling; and from thence along the great Road called Hillfoot Road, on the South Side of the Ochell Hills, till it meets with the great Road from Kinross to Perth, and along the same till it comes to the Bridge of Earn, and along the Water of Earn till its Junction with the River Tay, and along that River, till it joins the German Ocean; and that no Spirits, the Produce of such licensed Stills, shall be allowed to pass, either with or without Permit, into the Southern Parts of the Kingdom, either by Land across the Line above expressed, or by Water Carriage from the Coasts or Ports of any of the Counties mentioned in this Act; and that all Spirits, distilled to the West and North of the above Line, the Produce of such licensed Stills, or not produced by Stills entered in the Manner directed by the Laws of Excise, that shall be found passing to or in other Parts of the Kingdom, either with or without Permit, shall be liable to Seizure by the proper Officers, to be disposed of by them in the same Manner as other Spirits so seized are directed to be disposed of by the Laws of Excise.

No Stills to be licensed in certain Parts of the Counties of Dumbarton, Stirling, &c.

Spirits, the Produce of licensed Stills removed to the Southern Parts of the Kingdom, liable to Seizure.

XI. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every licensed Distiller having in his Possession or using a Still of larger Dimensions than those for which he has obtained a Licence and paid a Composition, shall be subject to a further Duty of two Pounds Sterling for each Gallon such Still shall contain, over and above the Quantity specified in his Licence; and if such Surplus shall exceed three Gallons English, he shall forfeit such Still, and all the Utensils thereto belonging, together with his Licence, and be liable to a Penalty of twenty Pounds Sterling; and further, if he shall be convicted of having in his Possession any other Still than that for which he has obtained a Licence, he shall in like Manner forfeit his Licence, and be subject to a Penalty of fifty Pounds Sterling, and such unlicensed Still shall be seized and forfeited; and every licensed Distiller, who shall be convicted of using any Grain, not the Growth of the Counties above mentioned, or some one of them, shall forfeit five Shillings per Bushel for all such Grain or Malt, and shall in like Manner forfeit his Still and Utensils, and his Licence.

Penalty on having larger Stills than those compounded for;

XII. And it is hereby declared, That no licensed Distiller or Distillers shall sell or dispose of any Malt, under any Pretence whatever, nor have in his, her, or their Custody, any Corn Spirits other than those of their own Manufacture, unless the same shall have been purchased from an entered or licensed Distiller, and accompanied with a regular Permit; and if he, she, or they shall act contrary hereto, he, she, or they shall forfeit their Licence and Utensils, and double the Value of the said Malt and Spirits.

or on disposing of any Malt, &c.

'XIII. And whereas the licensed Distiller is intitled by this Act to a free Permit to the Extent of one 'thousand six hundred and sixty Gallons of Spirits for a Still of forty Gallons, and so in Proportion for 'one of a lesser Size, being the full Quantity for which the above Composition is meant to be paid;' it is declared, That no Spirits shall be removed from the Place they are distilled at, without a Permit; and that all Spirits carrying from one Place to another, without Permit, shall be seized and forfeited.

No Spirits to be removed from the Place where distilled, without a Permit.

'XIV. And, in order the more effectually to prevent the Use of Stills of any other Size than those 'allowed by the Laws of Excise, or those authorised by this Act, and the distilling of Corn Spirits by 'any Persons other than those qualified according to Law, or who shall hold Licences in pursuance of this 'Act,' be it enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, no Still shall be made or offered to Sale for Home Use, without having stamped or engraved thereon the Maker's Name, and Place of Residence,

Directions relative to the making of Stills.

CAP. XXXV.

An Act for the more easy and effectual Sale of Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments of Crown Debtors, or of their Sureties.

WHEREAS by an Act, made in the thirteenth Year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth (intituled, An Act to make the Lands, Tenements, Goods and Chattels, of Tellers, Receivers, etcetera, liable to the Payment of their Debts), for the better Security of the Queen's Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, against such as should have the Receipt and Charge of the Money and Treasure of her Highness, her Heirs and Successors, it was declared and enacted, That all Lands, Tenements, Profits, Commodities, and Hereditaments, which certain Officers of the Crown, Farmers, and Persons therein named, particularly the Treasurer or Receiver of any Sums of Money impressed, or otherwise, for the Use of the Queen's Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, then had, or at any Time thereafter should have, within the Time he or they, or any of them, should remain accountable; should, for Payment and Satisfaction unto the Queen's Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, of his or their Arrearages, at any Time thereafter to be lawfully, according to the Laws of the Realm, adjudged and determined upon his or their Account (all his due and reasonable Petitions being allowed), be liable to the Payment thereof, and be put in Execution for Payment of such Arrearages or Debts, in like and in as large and beneficial a Manner, as if the Person had, the Day he became Officer or Accountant, stood bound by Writing obligatory, having the Effect of a Statute of the Staple, to her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors; and reciting, that forasmuch as many Times it might come to pass, that the Queen's Highness, her Heirs or Successors, might not be conveniently satisfied of the Debt to be determined or due upon any Account as aforesaid, by way of Extent, for that the yearly Value of the Lands extended would not satisfy her Highness, her Heirs or Successors, within the Compass of many Years, so as that great Loss might ensue to her Highness, her Heirs and Successors; for Remedy thereof it was enacted, That if any Treasurer, or other Person Accountant before mentioned, which should, from and after the Feast of Saint Michael then next ensuing, receive or be chargeable with any Money or Treasure of the Queen, her Heirs or Successors, and should, upon the determining of his or their Account, or by reason of any Farm as aforesaid, be found in Arrearages, and should not, within six Months next after his or their 13 Eliz. c. 4.

" Accounts

'Accounts finished, or Debt known, pay all such Sums of Money as he or they should, upon Determination 'of his or their Account, or upon his or their Debt known, it should be lawful to the Queen's Highness, her 'Heirs and Successors, at any Time, and from Time to Time, after the said six Months ended, to make 'Sale, by her or their Letters under the Great Seal of England, of so much of the Lands, Tenements, and 'Hereditaments, of every such Accountant or Debtor, so being found in Arrearages or Debt, as might suffice 'the Queen, her Heirs or Successors, for Satisfaction, until her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, should be 'by such Sale fully satisfied and paid off such Arrearages and Debt; and that if any Overplus should be 'received upon any such Sale, then the same should be paid to the Accountant or Farmer, or his Heirs, by 'the Officer that should receive the same Money upon any of the said Sales, without further Warrant in 'that Behalf: And whereas by an Act, made in the twenty-seventh Year of the same Queen, after reciting 'certain Doubts upon the said Act of the thirteenth Year of her Reign, it was declared and enacted, That 'the said recited Act, in every Part thereof touching the Power thereby given to her Highness, her Heirs 'and Successors, to make Sale of any the Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, by the same Act 'limited to be sold, should be expounded and intended, as well in case where the Sale is to be made after the 'Death of such Accountant or Debtor, as where it is to be made in his or their Life-time; and also as well 'in case where the Account is made, or the Debt known, within eight Years after the Death of such Ac-'countant or Debtor, as where the same Account is made, or the Debt known, in the Life-time of the 'same Accountant or Debtor; but it was provided, That after the Death of such Accountant or Debtor, and 'before any the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, descended unto the Heir of such Accountant or 'Debtor as Heir, should be sold, a Scire facias should be awarded out of her Majesty's Court of Ex-'chequer unto the Sheriff of the County where any such Lands lie, to garnish the same Heir, to shew 'Cause why the same Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, should not be put to Sale for Satisfaction of 'the same Debts or Farms in the said Act mentioned, according the Tenor thereof; whereupon if the Heir 'should not, within a convenient Time, upon a Garnishment or two Nichils returned, shew and prove unto 'the said Court that the Executors or Administrators of such Accountant or Debtor have sufficient, which 'ought to answer or be liable for the same Debt or Farm, then, after ten Months next after such two 'Nichils or Garnishment returned, the same Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, should be sold by 'her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, and the Money thereof coming disposed according to the said former 'recited Act: And after various other enacting Clauses, there was a Proviso to prevent Sale of the Lands, 'Tenements, or Hereditaments of any Heir, during the Time of his or her Nonage: And whereas by 'an Act, made in the thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth, the said recited explanatory 'Act of the twenty-seventh Year of Queen Elizabeth was repealed, and a new Exposition was made of the 'said recited Statute of the thirteenth of Elizabeth, with various new Provisions; but the said Act of the 'thirty-ninth Year of Elizabeth being only temporary, and having expired early in the Reign of James 'the First, the said explanatory Act of the twenty-seventh Year of Elizabeth became revived, and is now in 'force: And whereas it may tend greatly to facilitate and expedite the Payment of Debts to the Crown, 'where the real Estates of its Accountants or Debtors, or of their Sureties, are seized into the King's 'Hands under Writs of Extent, if a sufficient Part of such Estates was to be sold unto the Provisions of 'the said recited Acts of the thirteenth and twenty-seventh Years of Queen Elizabeth, but the said Acts 'have not been lately put in Use, and Inconvenience is likely to arise if the Mode of Sale therein directed 'should be pursued;' be it therefore declared and enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to and for his Majesty's Court of Exchequer, and the same Court is hereby authorised, on the Application of his Majesty's Attorney General in a summary Way, by Motion to the same Court, to order that the Right, Title, Estate, and Interest of any Debtor to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the Right, Title, Estate, and Interest of the Heirs and Assigns of such Debtor, in any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments which have been, or shall hereafter be extended under and by virtue of any such Writ of Extent or Diem clausit extremum as aforesaid, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient to satisfy the Debt for which the same shall have been so extended, shall be sold in such Manner as the said Court shall direct; and that when a Purchaser or Purchasers shall be found, the Conveyance of the Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments so decreed to be sold, shall be made to the Purchaser or Purchasers by his Majesty's Remembrancer in the said Court of Exchequer, or his Deputy, under the Direction of the said Court, by a Deed of Bargain and Sale, to be inrolled in the same Court; and that, from and after the making of such Conveyance, and the Inrollment thereof as aforesaid, the Bargainee or Bargainees in such Conveyance, and his or their Heirs, Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, shall have, hold, and enjoy the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments therein comprised, for his and their own respective Use and Benefit, not only against the Extent of the Crown, but also against such Debtor of the Crown, or the Surety or Sureties for such Debtor, and all Persons claiming under such Debtor, or the Surety or Sureties, unless by a Title paramount to, and available in Law against such Extent as aforesaid; and all Monies which shall become payable from any such Purchaser or Purchasers as aforesaid, shall be paid, accounted for, and applied towards Discharge of the Debt due to the Crown, and of all Costs and Expences which shall be incurred by the Crown in enforcing the Payment of such Debt, in such Manner as the said Court of Exchequer shall from Time to Time order and appoint: And if, after Payment of the whole Debt to the Crown, and of all Costs and Expences incurred in enforcing the Payment thereof, there shall be any Surplus of the Monies arising from any such Sale, the said Surplus shall belong to the same Person or Persons as would be intitled to the Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments sold, if there had not been a Sale thereof, and shall accordingly be paid to such Person or Persons, under the Order and Direction of the said Court of Exchequer, upon Motion or Petition to the said Court, to be made upon upon such Notice to the Crown, and to be supported by such Affidavits or other Proofs, as to the said Court shall from Time to Time seem just and reasonable.

'II. And whereas, from the Want of the Deeds and Writings relative to the Title of such Lands, Tene-'ments, and Hereditaments, as the said Court of Exchequer may decree to be sold under this Act, Diffi-'culties may arise in the Execution hereof,' be it therefore further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Court of Exchequer, from Time to Time, to make such Order touching the Production, Delivery, and Custody of such Title Deeds and Writings as aforesaid, in the same Manner as if a Decree had been made by the said Court for a Sale of the Lands of a Crown Debtor, in Execution of a Trust created for Payment of Debts by such Crown Debtor himself.

Not to affect the Recovery of Arrears or of Forfeitures.

VI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein before contained shall be construed to affect the Recovery of any Arrears which may, on the said fifth Day of July, or tenth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, respectively, remain unpaid of any of the said Duties, the Receipt and Management of which are transferred by this Act, or the Recovery of any Penalty or Forfeiture which may have been incurred on or before the same Days.

CAP. LII.

An Act for better examining and auditing the Publick Accounts of this Kingdom.

'WHEREAS the present Method of accounting for the Receipts, Issues, and Expenditures of the 'Publick Money, before the Auditors of the Imprest, is become insufficient to answer the good Pur-'poses intended thereby; for Remedy whereof, it is important that a more effectual Method shall be provided 'in

'in future for examining the Publick Accounts of the Kingdom, and for preventing, so far as possible, 'all Delays, Frauds, and Abuses, in delivering in and passing the same: And whereas it is expedient, for 'the effecting thereof, that the Right vested in the Right Honourable Lord Sondes, and the Right Honour- 'able John Stuart, commonly called Lord Viscount Mountstuart, now Lord Cardiff, which they derive from 'the Patents granted to them respectively, as Auditors of the Imprest, should cease and determine, on due 'Compensation being made to them for their Interest in the same; and that all Fees, Gratuities, and Per- 'quisites, in the Office of the Auditors of the Imprest, should be forthwith abolished; and that every Of- 'ficer and Clerk in the said Office or Department should be paid by the Publick a certain fixed annual 'Salary, in lieu of all such Fees, Gratuities, and Perquisites:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, the Patents granted by his late and present Majesty, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to the said Lord Sondes, and the said Lord Mountstuart, as Auditors of the Imprest, shall be vacated; and that all the Powers, Authorities, Rights, Privileges, and Advantages, thereby granted and given, shall cease and determine from the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five; from and after which Time, no Fee, Gratuity, Perquisite, or Emolument, shall be received or taken by any Person or Persons whomsoever, employed in the making up, passing, or auditing any Publick Accounts under the Authority of this Act.

From July 5, 1785, the Patents granted to the Auditors of the Imprest vacated.

Not to affect other Officers of the Exchequer.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to affect the Rights of any Officer or Minister of the Exchequer, other than the Auditors of the Imprest, or any Person or Persons under them.

'III. And whereas it is just and proper that the said Lord Sondes, and Lord Mountstuart, should have a 'reasonable and equitable Provision during their Lives, in lieu of the Profits and Emoluments of the 'said Offices of Auditors of the Imprests, of which they are divested under this Act;' be it enacted, That, from and after the said fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, there shall be paid out of the Aggregate Fund, to the said Lord Sondes, the annual Sum of seven thousand Pounds clear of all Deductions, and to the Lord Mountstuart the like annual Sum of seven thousand Pounds clear of all Deductions, during their Lives respectively, by equal quarterly Payments; the first Payment to be made on or immediately after the tenth Day of October following.

Compensation to the Auditors in lieu of the Emoluments of their Offices.

'IV. And, in order effectually to provide such Examination of all Publick Accounts in future as may be 'necessary for the Security of the Publick Interest,' be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, to nominate and appoint five Commissioners, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, two of whom shall be the Comptrollers of the Army Accounts, now and hereafter for the Time being; and to grant fixed Salaries to each of the said Commissioners, to be paid out of the Aggregate Fund, not exceeding in the Whole the Sum of four thousand Pounds clear of all Deductions annually, who shall be stiled, The Commissioners for auditing the Publick Accounts, and shall hold their Offices quam diu se bene gesserint (except the said Comptrollers of the Army Accounts, who shall continue to be Commissioners for auditing the Publick Accounts so long only as they shall be Comptrollers of Army Accounts); and shall, before they shall enter upon the Execution of the Powers vested in them by this Act, take an Oath before the Chancellor of the Exchequer, which he is hereby authorised and required to administer, the Tenor whereof shall be as followeth; (that is to say):

His Majesty may appoint five Commissioners for auditing the Publick Accounts.

'VI. And whereas it is just and reasonable that some Provision should be made for certain Persons during 'their Lives, who now hold Employments under the before mentioned Auditors of the Imprest, and for 'others who have retired therefrom upon annual Allowances paid to them by the said Auditors;' be it enacted, That, from and after the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, there shall be paid out of the Aggregate Fund to Philip Deare Esquire, Deputy to the Lord Viscount Mountstuart, and to John Wiggleſworth Esquire, Deputy to the Lord Sondes, the annual Sum of three hundred Pounds each; to John Lloyd, formerly Deputy to the Lord Sondes, the annual Sum of three hundred Pounds; and to Charles Harris, formerly one of the Clerks in the Office of the Lord Viscount Mountstuart, the annual Sum of two hundred Pounds; the said several Sums to be clear of all Deductions, by equal quarterly Payments, the first Payment to be made on or immediately after the tenth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five.

Commissioners may call before them all Persons who have received Money by way of Imprest, &c.

X. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, shall try and examine the several Accounts and Vouchers, which shall be transmitted to them from Time to Time, with as little Delay as possible; and upon Trial and Examination thereof, shall make full, just, and perfect Accounts, or Declarations of Accounts, containing briefly the Sum and Substance thereof in Charge and Discharge. Commissioners to examine Accounts as soon as possible.

XI. And be it further enacted, That in auditing and examining all Publick Accounts, the Commissioners shall allow such Articles of Discharge only, as the said Accountants respectively shall have been duly authorised to incur, unless, upon a special Statement of the Matter to the Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury, the said Commissioners shall be directed to make further or other Allowances to the said Accountants accordingly, by Warrant under the Hand of the said Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three of them. Directions relative to auditing Accounts.

'XII. Commissioners may examine Accountants on Oath.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Person or Persons, in the Course of their Examination upon Oath before the Commissioners, to be appointed as before provided, or their Successors, shall wilfully and corruptly give false Evidence, such Person or Persons so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be, and is and are hereby declared to be, subject and liable to such Pains and Penalties as, by any Law now in being, Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury are subject and liable to. Commissioners to make up a State of Accounts, and lay them before the Treasury.

XV. And be it further enacted and declared, That all Accounts of the Expenditure of the Publick Money, which have heretofore been passed in the Office of the Auditors of the Imprest, shall, from and after the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, be delivered to the Commissioners to be appointed under the Authority of this Act, together with the Vouchers belonging thereto. Accounts of Expenditure of Publick Money to be delivered to the Commissioners.

'XVI. And whereas it is necessary that the Commissioners to be appointed under the Authority of this 'Act should have early Information respecting the Issues of Money from the Exchequer to Persons on Account,' be it enacted and declared, That the Auditor of the Exchequer shall transmit to the said Commissioners a Certificate of all Monies issued from the Exchequer to Persons by way of Imprest, and upon Account, in like Manner as he now doth to the Auditors of the Imprest. Auditor to transmit to the Commissioners a Certificate of Monies issued upon Account.

'XVII. And whereas great Losses and Inconveniencies have arisen to the Publick by Sub-accountants 'not having been put in Charge till a long Time has elapsed after the Monies were issued to them,' be it Paymaster of the Forces, &c. to transmit to the Commissioners an Account of all Monies issued by them by way of Impress, &c.

enacted, That the Paymaster General of his Majesty's Forces, the Treasurer of the Navy, the Treasurer of the Ordnance, and every other publick Officer, who shall hereafter pay into the Hands of any Person or Persons whomsoever, Money for publick Services, by way of Impress, or on Account, shall, within thirty Days of the thirty-first Day of December one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, and within thirty Days of the thirty-first Day of December in every future Year, transmit an Account of all Sums of Money issued or paid by him or them to any Person or Persons, for the Publick Service, within the preceding Year, to the Commissioners to be appointed under the Authority of this Act; who shall, and they are hereby required forthwith to transmit Duplicates of the same to his Majesty's Remembrancer in the Court of Exchequer, who shall immediately, on Receipt of such Accounts, put the several Sums so issued in Charge against the Parties, in like Manner as is now practised with respect to Persons who receive Money by way of Impress, and on Account, at the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer.

Commissioners may compel Accountants to bring forward their Accounts.

'XIX. And whereas it is highly important, towards effecting the Purposes intended by this Act, that 'the Commissioners to be appointed under the Authority thereof should be impowered to compel Ac- 'countants to bring forward their Accounts;' be it enacted, That the said Commissioners shall, so often as they shall think fit, call upon such Persons to whom Sums of Money have been, or shall be so issued and paid, to render an Account of the same to them the said Commissioners, within a Time to be by them limited; and on Failure of the Accounts being delivered accordingly, within the Time so limited, the said Commissioners shall, and they are hereby required to include the Names of all such Defaulters in their Certificates, transmitted to the Office of his Majesty's Remembrancer, in order that the usual Process may issue thereupon; and also, in case they shall see Cause, they are hereby required to give Notice thereof to his Majesty's Attorney General in England, his Majesty's Advocate in Scotland, or his Majesty's Attorney General in any of the Colonies or Plantations belonging to the Crown of Great Britain, as the Case may require, in order that such Motions may be made by the said Officers to the Court of Exchequer, or other proper Court, and such further or other Process may be issued in order to his moving the Court of Exchequer in England or Scotland, or the proper Court in the Colonies or Plantations, for special Process to be issued against such Defaulter or Defaulters, as may be deemed necessary to compel him or them to deliver in his or their Accounts, as directed by the said Commissioners, unless upon Application of the Parties, their Agents or Attornies, to the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners for executing that Office, on a special Statement of Circumstances to justify Delay, the said Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury, shall grant their Warrant to stay the Process for such reasonable Time as they shall think fit.

Sub-accountants to deliver to the Commissioners, Vouchers for Expenditure of Monies issued to them, within certain limited Times.

XX. And be it further enacted and declared, That every Sub-accountant to whom Money shall hereafter be issued for publick Services, in case the Money so issued shall have been for Services to be performed in Great Britain, shall deliver in to the Office of the Commissioners to be appointed by virtue of this Act, the Vouchers for the Expenditure thereof, together with an Account current, within three Months of the End of each Year from the Commencement of his Account, unless it has been usual for such Account to be made up to any fixed Period in the Year; in which Case they shall be delivered within three Months of the usual annual Time of the Determination of each Account respectively; and in case such Monies shall have been issued for Services to be performed in any Part of Europe out of this Kingdom, then the Vouchers shall be delivered within four Months of the Expiration of each Year's Accounts; if in the West Indies, the Continent of America, or in Africa, within six Months after the Expiration of each Year's Accounts; and if in the East Indies, within twelve Months after the Expiration of each Year's Accounts; unless it shall in each and every Case be made appear, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of the Treasury, that the Failure of transmitting the same, within the Periods before mentioned, was unavoidable; in which Case such further Delay may be granted, by Warrant under the Hands of the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three of them, as they shall judge reasonable; and in such Cases the Vouchers shall be delivered at the Expiration of the Term of Delay so granted, on Pain, upon Failure in any of the above mentioned Cases, of paying such Fine to his Majesty as the Court of Exchequer, on Application made to them, shall think fit to set and impose; which Fine the said Court is hereby authorised and impowered to set and impose accordingly.

Process not to issue against certain Sub-accountants, without Directions from the Treasury

XXI. And be it further enacted, That Process shall in no Case be issued from the Court of Exchequer, against any Sub-accountant, who is to account to the principal Officers of the Board of Ordnance, or the principal Officers and Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy, the Commissioners for victualling his Majesty's Navy, or the Commissioners for Sick and Hurt, respectively, for Sums which have been issued to such Sub-accountants by the Treasurer of the Ordnance, or the Treasurer of the Navy, without Directions being previously given for that Purpose by the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of the Treasury, after a Reference of their Cases to the Commissioners of the Boards above mentioned respectively, and a Report made thereupon. Provided always, That no Process shall issue against any such Sub-accountant until twelve Months shall have elapsed from the Time of the making up the Accounts of the said Treasurer annually.

When Sub-accountants transmit a Dis-

'Sum or Sums of Money, so given as of Royal Bounty to any Person more than once in three Years, 'should be reputed a Pension: And whereas Doubts have arisen whether, according to the strict Letter 'of the said recited Act, the several Bounties and Compensations aforesaid may not be considered as 'Pensions which ought to be payable at the Exchequer only, and whether the several Officers who have 'hitherto paid the same are legally justified in the Payment thereof; but as all such Bounties are of small 'annual Amount, and payable to Persons in low and indigent Circumstances, who are not within the 'Meaning of the said recited Act; and as all such Compensations were so calculated, as that the Parties 'should receive the Whole thereof, clear of all Taxes and Deductions whatsoever, the Transfer of such 'Bounties and Compensations for Payment at the Exchequer would be attended with much Inconvenience 'and considerable Expence;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Bounties of the Description aforesaid, already given or granted, or which may hereafter be given or granted, and all Compensations given and granted to Persons who heretofore held Offices which have been suppressed or abolished, for and in respect of their respective Offices so suppressed or abolished, shall not be transferred for Payment at the Exchequer, but be paid and continue to be paid within the several Departments of the Lord Steward of the Household, Lord Chamberlain, Master of the Horse, Master of the Robes, and Treasury respectively, by the proper Officer in each of the said Departments appointed for that Purpose, as they heretofore lately have been; and that it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, or any three or more of them, or the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, from Time to Time to issue such Sum and Sums of Money as shall be necessary for the Payment of such Bounties and Compensations, within the respective Departments aforesaid; and that all and every Sum and Sums of Money already paid, or hereafter to be paid, by the respective Officers in the several Departments aforesaid, for or on Account of such Bounties and Compensations, shall be allowed to them respectively, in their several Accounts, by the Auditors and all other Persons having the auditing and passing thereof; any Thing in the said recited Act, or any other Act, to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

All Bounties already given by his Majesty, as before mentioned, or which shall hereafter be given, may continue to be paid by the Lord Steward, &c.

CAP. LXII.

An Act to prohibit, for a limited Time, the Exportation of Hay.

CAP. LXIII.

An Act for reducing the Allowances for Waste on Salt and Rock Salt; for regulating the Exportation of Salt to Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, and Sark; for repealing the Laws allowing the Use of foul Salt for Manure only; for allowing a Drawback on the Exportation of Glauber or Epsom Salts; for restraining Fish Curers from being Dealers in Salt; for regulating the Exportation of Herrings from the Isle of Man; for better securing the Duties on Salt; and for indemnifying Persons who have been guilty of Offences against the Laws relating to the Duties on Salt.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS, by an Act of Parliament, made in the fifth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, intituled, An Act for Ease of her Majesty's Subjects in relation to the Duties upon Salt, and for making the like Allowances upon the Exportation of White Herrings, Flesh, Oatmeal, and Grain called Beer, alias Bigg, as are to be made upon Exportation of the like from Scotland, it is, amongst other Things, enacted, That any Merchant or Person who shall ship any English Salt or Rock Salt, to be carried Coastwise, from one Port of England or Wales, or Port of Berwick upon Tweed, to any Port of England or Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, shall have an Allowance after the Rate of three Bushels for every forty Bushels of English White Salt, and after the Rate of one Bushel and an Half for every forty Bushels of English Rock Salt; and an Allowance of four Bushels for every forty Bushels of White Salt, and of two Bushels for every forty Bushels of Rock Salt, exported in Manner therein prescribed from England to Ireland, in Consideration of the ordinary Waste in the Carriage thereof: And by another Act of Parliament, made in the sixth Year of the Reign of her said late Majesty Queen ANNE, intituled, An Act to explain the Act of the last Session of Parliament for the Ease of her Majesty's Subjects in relation to Allowances out of the Duties upon Salt carried Coastwise; and also an Act of the first Year of her Majesty's Reign, in relation to certain Salt-works near the Sea-side and Bay of Holyhead in the County of Anglesea, the first mentioned Allowance for Waste is extended to all Salt carried Coastwise twenty Miles or more by Sea, or from the Port of Great Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk, to Lowestoff or Southwold Bay in the County of Suffolk, although the Place to which the said Salt should be carried be a Member or Creek of the Port from whence the same was first shipped off: And whereas by an Act, made in the twentieth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty additional Duties upon Salt; and for regulating the Exportation of Salt to the Isle of Man; the Exporter or Proprietor of White Salt and Rock Salt to the Isle of Man is allowed four Bushels for every forty Bushels of White Salt, and two Bushels for every forty Bushels of Rock Salt, in Consideration of the ordinary Waste in the Carriage thereof, upon the Terms mentioned in the said Act in that Behalf: And whereas

6 Ann. c. 12.

20 Geo. 3. c. 34.

'it is found, by Experience, that the said Allowances far exceed the real Waste, and that many Opportunities are thereby given of evading the Payment of the several Duties on Salt, and the Payment thereof is thereby daily evaded, to the great Diminution of the said Duties;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, each and every of the said several Allowances for Waste on White Salt and Rock Salt carried Coastwise, or shipped or exported to Ireland, or the Isle of Man, be reduced and lessened; and that, instead of the said several Allowances before mentioned, there be allowed from thenceforth for Waste on White Salt and Rock Salt, carried Coastwise not less than twenty Miles by Sea, after the Rate of one Bushel for every forty Bushels of White Salt, and after the Rate of Half a Bushel for every forty Bushels of Rock Salt, and no more, and in that Proportion for a greater or less Quantity; and for Waste on White Salt and Rock Salt exported to Ireland, and the Isle of Man, after the Rate of two Bushels for every forty Bushels of White Salt, and after the Rate of one Bushel for every forty Bushels of Rock Salt, and no more, and in that Proportion for a greater or less Quantity, the Persons who claim the said Allowances hereby given producing such Certificate as is by the said former Acts required, any Thing in the said Acts, or any other, to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding; and that no Allowance whatsoever be from thenceforth made for Waste on any Salt carried Coastwise by Sea less than twenty Miles.

Allowances for Waste on Salt reduced.

Recital of 2 & 3 Ann. c. 14.

'II. And whereas, by an Act, made in the second and third Years of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, intituled, An Act for the better securing and regulating the Duties upon Salt, it is (amongst other Things) enacted and declared, That any Person exporting any Salt to Scotland, the Isle of Man, or the Islands of Jersey and Guernsey, according to the Directions of the several Acts relating to the said Duties upon Salt, is and shall be intitled to a Drawback of the Duties of the Salt so exported, in such Manner as in case of the Exportation of Salt to any other foreign Parts: And whereas great Sums of Money are paid out of his Majesty's Duties upon Salt, on Account of Debentures for English White Salt, shipped under Pretence of being exported to the Islands of Jersey and Guernsey, and it is found, by Experience, that great Part of such Salt hath been fradulently put on Shore and relanded, without being carried to the said Islands, by which evil Practices his Majesty's said Duties are very much lessened: And whereas the like Frauds had been frequently committed on the Exportation of Salt and Rock Salt to the Isle of Man; for Remedy whereof it was enacted, by an Act passed in the twentieth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty additional Duties upon Salt, and for regulating the Exportation of Salt to the Isle of Man, That no Debentures should be made or granted, or Drawback allowed, for any Salt or Rock Salt exported to the Isle of Man, until a Certificate should be obtained of the particular Quantity landed, according to the Directions of the said Act: And whereas it is reasonable and fitting that the Provisions of the said Act in that Behalf should extend to White Salt and Rock Salt, shipped to be exported to the said Islands of Jersey and Guernsey, and to the Islands of Alderney and Sark;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several Directions, Regulations, and Provisions of the said last mentioned Act, so far as the same relates to the Exportation of any White Salt or Rock Salt to the Isle of Man (except as to the Allowance for Waste as herein after mentioned), shall extend, and be deemed and construed to extend, to the Exportation of White Salt and Rock Salt to the Islands of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, and Sark, in as full and ample Manner as if they were repeated and hereby severally re-enacted; any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

20 Geo. 3. c. 34.

Provisions of the last mentioned Act relative to exporting Salt to the Isle of Man, extended to Jersey, &c.

Allowance of Waste on Salt exported to said Islands, reduced.

III. Provided always nevertheless, and it is hereby further enacted and declared, That, instead of the Allowance for Waste of four Bushels for every forty Bushels of White Salt, and of two Bushels for every forty Bushels of Rock Salt, shipped for Exportation to the Isle of Man, in pursuance of the said last mentioned Act, or to the Islands of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, and Sark, every Exporter of White Salt and Rock Salt to the Islands of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, and Sark, or the Isle of Man, shall be allowed only one Bushel for every forty Bushels of White Salt, and Half a Bushel for every forty Bushels of Rock Salt, in Consideration of the ordinary Waste in the Carriage thereof.

5 Ann. c. 8.

'IV. And whereas by the eighth Article of the Act of Union, passed in the fifth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, no Salt whatsoever is allowed to be brought from Scotland to England by Land, in any Manner, under the Penalty of forfeiting the Salt, and the Cattle and Carriages made use of in bringing the same, and paying twenty Shillings for every Bushel of such Salt, and proportionably for a greater or lesser Quantity, for which the Carrier, as well as the Owner, is liable jointly and severally, and the Persons bringing or carrying the same to be imprisoned by any one Justice of the Peace by the Space of six Months, without Bail, and until the Penalty be paid: And whereas Salt brought from Scotland by Land is frequently found in the Custody or Possession of Persons who live near the Borders of that Part of the United Kingdom called Scotland; and if discovered by any of the Officers for the Salt Duties, the Person or Persons in whose Custody or Possession the same is found, pretend that the same doth not belong to him, her, or them, so that the above mentioned Penalties cannot be inflicted on such Offender or Offenders, as in that Act are described:' For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Person, residing in any County in England near the Borders of Scotland, in whose Custody or Possession any Salt brought from Scotland shall be so found, shall be liable to the same Penalties as if he or she was the Carrier or Owner thereof; unless he or she shall make it appear upon the Trial, or Hearing of any Information for such Offence, that it came by Sea, and that the Duties due and payable on the Importation thereof had been paid or secured.

Penalty on Persons in whose Possession Salt brought from Scotland by Land shall be found.

'V. And

'V. And whereas by an Act passed in the eighth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, foul Salt is permitted to be delivered from any Salt Works, upon paying a Duty of four Pence a Bushel, upon the Terms therein mentioned, for manuring of Land only: And whereas by an Act passed in the twenty-second Year of his present Majesty's Reign (intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty additional Duties upon Salt; and certain Duties upon Glauber or Epsom Salts, and also on Mineral Alkali or Flux for Glass, made from Salt; and to prevent Frauds in the Duties on foul Salt, to be used in manuring of Lands; reciting, That, notwithstanding the Restriction in the said Act, Abuses had been committed contrary to the Intent and Meaning thereof; and for preventing them in future, it was enacted, That no Grey or Screw Salt, Salt-scale, Sand-scale, or Crustings, or other foul Salt whatsoever, produced, or to be produced, at any Salt Works within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, from the manufacturing of such White Salt as aforesaid, should, from and after the twenty-second Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eighty-two, be removed or carried away from the Works where the same should be produced, without Notice first given to the Officer attending such Works, or who should reside nearest thereto; and without having been first well and sufficiently mixed with common Chimney Coal Soot, in the Proportion of two Bushels of Soot to one hundred Bushels of such Salt, under the Penalty therein mentioned; which Provision in the said Act has not had the good Effect to prevent such Abuses, but great Frauds are daily committed by divers Manufacturers unlawfully using such foul Salt, without the Means of Detection, to the great Diminution of the Salt Duties, who must otherwise use White Salt;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That those Parts of the said recited Acts, which allow the using of foul Salt for the manuring of Land only, and direct that it shall not be removed from the Works without having been first mixed with Chimney Coal Soot, shall be, and the same are hereby declared to be repealed.

22 Geo. 3. c. 39.

Part of the Acts of 8 and 22 Geo. 3. repealed.

'VI. And, in order to obviate any Doubts that may hereafter arise respecting the Duties payable for such foul Salt,' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, all foul Salt that shall be made or produced at any Salt Works, shall be subject and liable to the same Duties as any English White Salt is now, or hereafter may be subject and liable to, and to such and the like Directions, Regulations, and Provisions, in every Respect, as if they were severally enumerated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act.

All foul Salt to be liable to the same Duties as White Salt.

'VII. And whereas by an Act, made in the twenty-second Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty additional Duties upon Salt; and certain Duties upon Glauber or Epsom Salts, and also on Mineral Alkali or Flux for Glass, made from Salt; and to prevent Frauds in the Duties on foul Salt, to be used in manuring of Lands; a Duty of twenty Shillings for every Hundred Weight is laid on all Salts known or called by the Name of Glauber or Epsom Salts, made or produced at any Salt Works in Great Britain, and after that Rate for a greater or less Quantity: And whereas it is found, by Experience, that, since the said Duty has been imposed, the Exportation of the said Salts has been much lessened, to the Hurt of the Maker or Manufacturer thereof; it is therefore but reasonable that a Drawback or Allowance should be made of so much of the said Duty on Exportation, as will enable the Maker or Manufacturer to render the Sale thereof, at Foreign Markets, upon equal Terms with that of any other Country;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, all and every Person or Persons who shall export, or cause to be exported, beyond the Seas, any Salts known or called by the Name of Glauber or Epsom Salts, made or produced at any Salt Works in Great Britain, the Duty whereof shall have been paid, shall, upon such Exportation, be intitled to a Drawback or Allowance of ten Shillings out of the said Duty, for every Hundred Weight of the said Salts, upon such and the like Terms as in the Cases of Exportation of Foreign and English Salt.

22 Geo. 3. c. 39.

Exporters of Glauber or Epsom Salts to be allowed a Drawback.

'VIII. And whereas great Frauds have been committed in the Salt Revenue by Fish Curers becoming Dealers in Salt for Home Consumption;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, no Fish Curer or Fish Curers shall, directly or indirectly, sell, retail, or vend any Salt other than to Fish Curers, in pursuance of an Act made in the fifth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, intituled, An Act for recovering the Credit of the British Fishery in Foreign Parts; and for better securing the Duties on Salt, under the Penalty of forfeiting twenty Shillings a Bushel for every Bushel that he, she, or they shall so dispose of, and after that Rate for any greater or less Quantity; and shall never afterwards be permitted to have Salt Duty-free, or be concerned with any other or others as a Curer of Fish.

No Fish Curer shall sell Salt, except to other Curers.

5 Geo. 1. c. 18.

Penalty.

'IX. And whereas by an Act made in the twelfth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the further Encouragement of the Herring Fishery on the Coasts of the Isle of Man; and for obviating a Doubt which has arisen with respect to the allowing the Bounties upon the British White Herring Fishery, in the Year one thousand seven hundred and seventy-one; any Sort of Herrings, caught upon the Coasts of the Isle of Man and cured there, are allowed to be imported and brought into any Part of Great Britain, upon Payment of the Duties therein mentioned, the Master or other Person having the Charge of the Ship so importing such Herrings, bringing with him a Certificate or Certificates from the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Commander in Chief, or Chief Magistrate for the Time being, that Oath had been made before him or them, in the Presence of the Officer of the Customs for the Port or Place where such Herrings were put on board, that the same were bona fide taken on the Coasts of the Isle of Man and cured there; which Certificate or Certificates also to be attested by the said Officer of the Customs, and to express the Number of Barrels, and Quantity of such Herrings respectively, and the Marks of the Package expressed in the Bill or Bills of Lading, with the Name or Names, Place or Places of Abode of such Person or Persons as shall have made the Oath thereby directed, and where and to whom such Herrings shall be consigned in Great Britain;

'Britain; and the Master, or Person taking Charge of the Ship or Vessel importing the same, also making 'Oath before the Collector or Principal Officer of the Salt-duties, at the Port or Place of Importation 'in Great Britain, that the said Herrings were the same that were taken on board by virtue of the said Cer- 'tificate or Certificates so to be produced; on Failure whereof, or of any of the Requisites therein mention- 'ed, the Herrings to be liable to the same Duties, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as such Herrings would have 'been liable to by Law, if the said Act had not been made: And whereas, before the passing of the said Act, 'all Kinds of Fish were prohibited from being brought in or imported from the said Island; and it is since 'found by Experience that Herrings, caught and cured upon the said Coasts, are clandestinely shipped, and 'fraudulently brought into Great Britain, to the Loss of the Revenue, and Injury to the Fish Curers there, 'contrary to the Intention of the said Act, which may in a great Measure be prevented, if further Provisions 'and suitable Penalties were to be inflicted on Persons offending against the said Act;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, no Herrings, caught upon the Coasts of the Isle of Man, and cured there, shall be shipped or exported from thence, for any Place or Places whatsoever, till such Certificate or Certificates is or shall be obtained as required by the said Act, under the Penalty of forty Shillings a Barrel, and so in Proportion for a greater or less Quantity, to be recovered of the Owner, Proprietor, Master of the Vessel, or the Person or Persons who shall ship or export the same, and also giving Bond to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, in Double the Amount of the Duty, to the Satisfaction of the Chief Officer of the Customs for the Time being (who is hereby required and impowered to take the same), at the Port or Place in the said Island where such Herrings shall be shipped or put on board, for the truly landing of them at the Port or Place for which they shall be so shipped or put on board, and if for Great Britain, upon paying the Duty and making the Oath upon the Importation thereof; which Bond shall be discharged, and given up without Fee or Reward, upon Certificate returned or produced to the Chief Officer of the Customs, for the Time being, of the Port or Place in the said Island from whence the said Herrings were exported, within twelve Months from the Date of the said Bond, or otherwise it shall and may be lawful for such Chief Officer of the Customs to cause such Bond to be put in Suit, unless he shall find sufficient Cause to forbear the same; which Certificate the Chief Officer of the Salt Duties, or otherwise of the Customs (in case there shall happen to be no Salt Officer), at the Port or Place of Importation in Great Britain, or any other of his Majesty's Dominions, is hereby directed and required to grant, without Fee or Reward; and if exported to any other Place or Places out of his Majesty's Dominions, then, upon Certificate under the Common Seal of the Chief Magistrate there, or under the Hands and Seals of two known British Merchants, then being at such Place or Places, that such Herrings were there landed; or upon Proof, by credible Persons, that such Herrings, or Part thereof, were taken by Enemies, perished in the Seas, or were otherwise lost or destroyed by any inevitable Accident; the Examination and Proof thereof being left to the Judgment of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Commander in Chief, or Chief Magistrates of the said Isle of Man, for the Time being.

No Herrings caught on the Coasts of the Isle of Man, &c. shall be exported from thence, till a proper Certificate is obtained, &c.

'X. And whereas British Salt, delivered Duty-free for the curing of Fish for foreign Markets, is liable to 'Frauds for Want of Security being given as for foreign Salt, when delivered over into the Curer's sole 'Custody at the Beginning of the Fishing Season;' for Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, on delivering over such Salt from the joint Custody of the Officer and Proprietor, into the sole Custody of the Proprietor or his Agent, for the curing of Fish for Exportation, the said Proprietor or his Agent shall give Security (to the Satisfaction of the Chief Officer of the Salt Duties in the Port or Place where such Salt has been lodged) in Double the Amount of the Duties, that he or they shall and will account for the same in the Terms of, and according to the true Intent and Meaning of the several Acts of Parliament made in that Behalf, in like Manner as the Curers of Fish now do for the foreign Salt delivered into their sole Custody, for curing Fish for Exportation, by virtue of an Act made in the eighth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the Second; and that all such Salt shall, upon being delivered into the sole Custody of the Proprietor, be weighed over by the said Proprietor or his Agents in the Presence of the Officer for the Duties on Salt, if he shall require the same, to the End that the Quantity of Salt delivered into the Proprietor's sole Custody, and the Deficiency (if any) from the Quantity before lodged under the joint Lock and Key of such Officer and Proprietor, as aforesaid, may be truly ascertained, and the real Quantity wanting at the Redelivery truly known, making a reasonable Allowance for the Waste for the Time the said Salt has been so locked up; and that every Fish Curer, who shall neglect or refuse to weigh over, to the Officer for the Duties on Salt, what Salt shall remain unused (in order to adjust the Quantity used), and also to lock up the Remainder in the joint Custody of the Officer and Proprietor, when thereunto duly required by the said Officer, shall forfeit the Sum of five hundred Pounds, and shall never afterwards be permitted to have Salt Duty-free for the curing of Fish, or be concerned with any other or others as a Curer of Fish; and that no Salt whatsoever, after the same has been delivered into the sole Custody of the Curer of Fish for foreign Markets, shall be delivered over to any other Person for the curing of Fish, nor shall be removed from the Place where lodged to any other Place for curing Fish, without giving Notice to the Officer, and having a Warrant from him for removing the same, upon Pain of forfeiting the Sum of fifty Pounds, by the Proprietor or Owner of the Salt, or the Person removing the same; and that no Person whatsoever shall be deemed or taken to be a Curer of Fish, so as to intitle him to have any Salt delivered into his sole Custody Duty-free, for the curing Fish for foreign Markets, who has not a Warehouse, Storehouse, or other proper Place, wherein the Salt may be securely lodged under the Lock and Key of the Officer for the Duties on Salt, as well as the said Proprietor, as the Law directs.

On Delivery of Salt Duty free to Curers for foreign Markets, Security shall be given to the Satisfaction of the Officer.

Such Salt to be weighed in Presence of the Officer.

'XI. And, for the better and more impartial Trial of any Indictment or Information, which shall at any 'Time hereafter be found, commenced or prosecuted for any Assault made or committed upon any of the Of-Indictments for Aſſaults on Officers may be tried in any County.

'XII. And whereas it hath been found, by Experience, that the Bailiffs and other Officers, having the Exe-'cution of Proceſs in the ſeveral Counties, Cities, and Liberties of this Kingdom, often hold Correſpondence 'with the Perſons guilty of Offences contrary to the Laws or Statutes relating to the Duties on Salt, or other 'Duties under the Management of the Commiſſioners for the Duties on Salt, and give them Notice when any 'Writ or Proceſs iſſues againſt them, whereby they eſcape from Juſtice;' for Remedy thereof, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the ſaid firſt Day of Auguſt one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-five, where any Writ of Capias, or other Proceſs, ſhall iſſue out of any Court, directed to any Sheriff, Mayor, Bailiff, or other Perſon having the Execution of Proceſs in any County, City, or Liberty, againſt any Perſon who ſhall be guilty of, or proſecuted for any Offence whatſoever, contrary to any of the Laws or Statutes now in being, or hereafter to be made, relating to his Majeſty's ſaid Duties on Salt, or any other Duties under the Management of the Commiſſioners for the ſaid Duties on Salt, every ſuch Sheriff, Mayor, or Bailiff, and other Perſons having Execution of Proceſs as aforeſaid, and their and every of their Under Sheriffs, Deputies, and other Perſons acting for them in the ſaid Office and Offices reſpectively, ſhall and are hereby enjoined and required, upon the Requeſt or Application of the known Solicitor for the Duties on Salt (ſuch Requeſt to be in Writing indorſed upon the Back of the ſaid Proceſs, and ſigned by ſuch Solicitor), to grant a ſpecial Warrant or Warrants to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall be named to them by ſuch Solicitor, for the apprehending ſuch Offender and Offenders; or, in Default thereof, every ſuch Sheriff, Mayor, Bailiff, Under Sheriff, and other Perſon acting in the ſaid Office or Offices reſpectively, ſhall be ſubject and liable to ſuch Proceſs of Contempt, Fines, Amerciaments, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as they, or any of them, are now by any Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage, liable to in caſe of refuſing or neglecting to execute the like Proceſs, where the Defendant might have been taken thereupon, in the common and uſual Method of Proceeding.

When Writs of Capias, &c. are iſſued againſt Offenders relative to the Salt Duties, a Special Warrant ſhall be granted for apprehending them.

Penalty on Sheriffs, &c. making Default.

'XIII. And whereas it has been doubted where the Commiſſioners for the Duties on Salt, and Juſtices of 'the Peace, have reſpectively iſſued out any Summons for the Appearance of Perſons offending againſt, or 'for Forfeitures incurred by the Laws relative to the Duties on Salt, or any other Law under the Manage-'ment of the Commiſſioners for the ſaid Duties on Salt, which hath been left at the Houſe or uſual Place of 'Reſidence, or with the Wife, Child, or menial Servant of ſuch Perſons, whether the ſame ſhould be deemed 'and adjudged a good and ſufficient Summons, and as legal and effectual a Notice as if the ſame had been 'actually delivered to the proper Hands of ſuch Perſon or Perſons to whom the ſame was or were directed;' Now, in order to put an End to ſuch Doubt, be it hereby enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every ſuch Summons, ſo left as aforeſaid, ſhall be deemed to be a good and ſufficient Summons, and as legal and effectual a Notice as if the ſame had been actually delivered to the proper Hands of ſuch Perſons to whom the ſame was by Name directed.

Summonſes for the Appearance of Offenders, left at their Place of Abode, &c. to be deemed legal Notice.

XIV. And, for the future, it is hereby enacted, That in all Caſes relating to the Duties on Salt, or to any of the other Duties which now are, or hereafter may be under the Management of the Commiſſioners of the ſaid Duties on Salt, the leaving ſuch Summons at the Houſe, Workhouſe, Warehouſe, Boiling Houſe, Hot Houſe, Salt Crib, Shop, Cellar, Vault, or uſual Place of Reſidence of ſuch Perſon or Perſons, directed to ſuch Perſon or Perſons, by his, her, or their right or aſſumed Name or Names, ſhall be deemed to be, and is hereby declared to be as legal and effectual a Notice and Summons, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſame was perſonally given or delivered to or into the Hands of the Party or Parties for whom the ſame ſhall be deſigned, and as if the ſame was directed to the Party or Parties to and for whom the ſame ſhall be deſigned, by his, her, or their proper Name or Names.

No Evidence of the Cause of Action to be produced, except that contained in such Notice.

XIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case such Officer, or others acting in his Aid, shall neglect to tender any Amends, or shall have tendered insufficient Amends, before the Action brought, it shall and may be lawful for him or them, by Leave of the Court where such Action shall be brought, at any Time before Issue joined, to pay into Court such Sum of Money as he or they shall see fit, whereupon such Proceedings, Orders, and Judgements shall be had, made, and given, in and by such Court, as in other Actions where the Defendant is allowed to pay Money into Court.

XXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall obstruct, assault, resist, oppose, molest, or hinder any Officer or Officers of the Salt Duties in the Execution of his or their Office, or in the Execution of any of the several Powers and Authorities given or granted to such Officers by this or any other Act now in force, or hereafter to be made; or shall beat or abuse the said Officers, or any of them, in the Execution of their Office; every Person or Persons so offending shall severally forfeit and lose, for every such Offence, the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

'XXIV. And whereas, by the several Regulations hereby established, and by the Reduction in the 'Allowances granted by former Acts of Parliament, the Produce of the several and respective Duties on 'Salt will be much increased;' be it therefore enacted, That a just and reasonable Proportion shall be taken by the Cashier of the said Salt Duties, out of the Monies that shall arise and come to his Hands, for the respective Duties granted by the before recited Acts of the twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the Second, and of the twentieth and twenty-second Years of the Reign of his present Majesty; and he the said Cashier shall set apart, and pay into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, the annual Sum of twelve thousand Pounds, by Payments of three thousand Pounds each Quarter; videlicet, On or before the tenth Day of October, the fifth Day of January, the fifth Day of April, and the fifth Day of July, in every Year, the first quarterly Payment to be paid for the Quarter which will end the tenth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five; and such quarterly Sum and Sums of three thousand Pounds, so to be paid into the said Receipt of the Exchequer, shall be entered and kept distinct and apart from all other Monies paid and payable to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors; and shall, together with such other Rates, Duties, and Revenues, as are or shall be granted by any Act or Acts of this Session of Parliament, be a Fund for the Payment of the several Annuities, and all such other Charges and Expences as are directed to be paid and payable, pursuant to an Act of this present Session of Parliament (intituled, An Act for granting Annuities to satisfy certain Navy, Victualling, and Transport Bills, and Ordnance Debentures).

12,000*l.* to be paid annually into the Exchequer, and recover Treble Costs.

'XXVII. And whereas many Persons, having incurred heavy Penalties by reason of Offences committed 'against the Laws for collecting and securing the Duties on Salt, and on account of foreign and British 'Salt delivered Duty-free for the Fisheries, are deterred from renouncing their evil Courses, through Fear 'of being discovered by some of their Associates, and thereby subjected to Prosecution: And whereas it is 'expedient to extend a Pardon and Indemnity to Persons under the aforesaid Circumstances;' be it therefore enacted, That no Prosecution, by Bill, Plaint, Information, or Action of Debt, shall be commenced for any pecuniary Penalty or Forfeiture incurred by reason of any Offence committed, by any Person or Persons, against any of the Provisions of any Act or Acts for collecting and securing the Duties under the Management of the Commissioners of the Salt Duties, committed before the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, but that the said Penalties and Forfeitures be wholly pardoned and released.

Two Clauses in the Act of last Session recited,

'II. And whereas by the said recited Act it was also enacted, That, in case any Person or Persons whatsoever should, at any Time or Times after the first Day of December one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, during the Continuance of the Duties by the said Act imposed upon wrought Plate, or Manufactures of Gold and Silver, export, by way of Merchandize, for any foreign Parts, any Plate of Gold or Silver, wrought or manufactured in this Kingdom, which by the said Act is charged or chargeable with the respective Duties of eight Shillings per Ounce, and six Pence per Ounce, and the same should appear to have been made and marked as aforesaid, after the first Day of December one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, and the Duty thereby directed should have been paid thereon; and should give sufficient Security, before the shipping thereof for Exportation, that the particular Quantities of such Plate or Manufactures of Gold and Silver, intended to be exported as aforesaid, and every Part thereof, should not be relanded or brought again into Great Britain, and should make Proof, upon Oath, that the same Gold or Silver Plate or Manufactures were actually made and marked as aforesaid, after the said first Day of December one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four; and should also produce or deliver to such Customer or Collector a Certificate, under the Hand of the Person to whom such wrought Plate or Manufactures of Gold and Silver were consigned, certifying that the same had been received, and mentioning the Weight and particular Species of Plate so consigned and received, the Name of the Person consigning the same, the Name of the Vessel, and the Name of the Captain commanding such Vessel, and the Port of Great Britain from which the said Vessel was cleared, and the Port to which such Vessel was bound; and should also, where the Drawback should amount to five Pounds, and upwards, authenticate such Certificate by notarial Act in Writing, and where the same could not be done by a notarial Act, then the same should be authenticated under the Hand and Seal of the Chief Magistrate of the City, Town, or Place, where such wrought Plate or Manufacture of Gold and Silver should be received; that then the said Customer or Collector should give to the Exporter thereof a Debenture, expressing the true Kinds and Quantities of such Plate and Manufactures of Gold or Silver so exported, or shipped to be exported; and the Exportation or shipping thereof being certified by the Searcher upon the said Debenture, the Collector or Receiver of the said Duty on Plate, upon the said Debenture so certified being produced to him, should forthwith pay a Drawback or Allowance after the Rate of eight Shillings for every Ounce Troy on Gold, and six Pence for every Ounce Troy on Silver Plate or Manufacture, out of the Money in his Hands, in the Manner in the said Act particularly mentioned and set forth: And whereas the great Delay in withholding the Drawback, in Cases where such Plate or Manufacture of Gold and Silver is wanted to be exported to the East and West Indies, and to other distant Parts, until the Certificate, directed in the said recited Clause, can be procured from the Persons to whom such wrought Plate is consigned, tends greatly to impede the Exportation of Gold and Silver manufactured Plate to foreign Parts, and is very injurious to

'the Manufacturers thereof: And whereas by the said recited Act it was also further enacted, That all 'wrought Gold and Silver Plate, which should be intended to be exported from this Kingdom into any 'foreign Parts, should, before the same was shipped, be brought to the Assay Office, and should there be 'stamped with the Figure of a Britannia, in order to denote that such Plate was intended for Exportation, 'and to be allowed the Drawback thereon: And whereas the striking the Britannia Mark on many Articles 'of wrought Gold and Silver Plate, in their finished State, can in no Way be practised without doing material 'Damage to such wrought Plate;' be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, the said two last recited Clauses in the said Act contained, and each of them, shall be, and the same are hereby respectively repealed. and repealed.

'III. And, in order to prevent any Injury to the Manufacturers of Gold and Silver Plate, and for the 'better Encouragement of the Exportation thereof,' be it enacted, That in case any Person or Persons whatsoever shall, at any Time or Times after the twenty-fourth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, during the Continuance of the Duties by the said recited Act imposed upon wrought Plate, or Manufactures of Gold and Silver, exported by way of Merchandize, for any foreign Parts, any Plate of Gold or Silver, wrought or manufactured in this Kingdom, which, by the said recited Act, is charged or chargeable with the said respective Duties of eight Shillings per Ounce, and six Pence per Ounce, and the same shall appear to have been made or marked as aforesaid after the said first Day of December one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, and the Duties thereby directed shall have been paid thereon, and shall give sufficient Security, before the Shipping thereof for Exportation, that the particular Quantities of such Plate, or Manufactures of Gold or Silver, intended to be exported as aforesaid, and every Part thereof, shall not be relanded or brought again into Great Britain; and shall make Proof, upon Oath, that the same Gold or Silver Plate, or Manufactures, were actually made or marked as aforesaid, after the Time in the said recited Act mentioned, which Security shall be taken in the King's Name, and to his Use, and the Oath or Oaths administered by the Customer or Collector of the respective Port of such Exportation, without Fee or Reward; that then, and in every such Case, and without the Production of any such Certificate, or notarial or other Act in Writing, as in the said Act is mentioned, the said Customer or Collector shall give to the Exporter thereof a Debenture, expressing the true Kinds and Quantities of such Plate and Manufactures of Gold or Silver so exported, or shipped to be exported; and the Exportation or shipping thereof being certified by the Searcher upon the said Debenture, the Collector or Receiver of the said Duty upon Plate, at the several Assay Offices where the same were marked and assayed, shall, upon the said Debenture, so certified, being produced to him, forthwith pay a Drawback or Allowance, after the Rate of eight Shillings per Ounce Troy, and proportionably for any greater or less Quantity of such Plate, or Manufacture of Gold; and after the Rate of six Pence for every Ounce Troy, and proportionably for every greater or less Quantity of such Plate, or Manufacture of Silver, out of the Money of the said Duties on Plate, or Manufactures of Gold and Silver, then in the Hands of the said Receiver or Collector, without Fee or Reward; and if the said Collector or Receiver shall not have Money in his Hands to pay any such Debenture, then the Receiver General of the Stamp-duties for the Time being is hereby required to pay, or cause to be paid, the said Debenture, out of the Duties arising by this Act, any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding. Clause for the Encouragement of the Exportation of Gold and Silver Plate.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Exporters of Gold and Silver Watches shall mark or engrave in the Inside of every Case or Box of each Watch, inclosing the Works thereof, the same Numbers and Figures which shall be respectively marked or engraved on the Works of the Watch which shall be inclosed in such Case or Box. Gold and Silver Watches, how to be marked.

'V. And, the better to prevent the fraudulent relanding of any Plate in this Kingdom, after the Draw-'back has been paid and allowed for the same,' it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Securities and Bonds, required to be taken as aforesaid, shall continue and remain in force, until every such Exporter of any wrought Plate, or Manufactures of Gold and Silver, shall produce and deliver to such Customer or Collector the Bill of Lading thereof, and which shall have at the Foot the Receipt of the Master of the Vessel on board of which the said Plate or Manufactures were shipped, and also a Receipt or Certificate, on the Back of such Bill of Lading, under the Hand of the Person to whom such wrought Plate or Manufactures of Gold and Silver were consigned, certifying or acknowledging that the same have been received, and mentioning in such Receipt or Certificate the true Kinds and Quantities of Plate so consigned and received, and the Name of the Person consigning the same; and also, if such Plate shall consist of Watches, the Numbers or Figures marked or engraved in the Inside of the Case or Box of each such Watch, that then such Securities and Bonds shall and may be delivered up and cancelled. Bonds to remain in force until the Particulars herein mentioned shall be complied with.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where the Ship or Vessel, on board of which such Plate, or Manufactures of Gold and Silver, or Watches, where shipped, shall be lost, or shall not, within the Space of three Years, return to any Port in Great Britain; upon due Proof thereof being made to the Customer or Collector at the Port at which the said Drawback was received, and the said Bonds given, the said Customer or Collector shall deliver up to such Exporters their Securities and Bonds, so given by them, in order that the same may be cancelled, if no Fraud therein shall in the mean Time have appeared, or no Prosecution thereon shall have been commenced. Bonds to be cancelled upon the Loss of any Vessel exporting such Goods.

CAP. LXV.

An Act for the further Encouragement of the British Fisheries.

'WHEREAS the extending and improving of the British Fishery hath been frequently declared by 'Parliament to be of great Importance to this Kingdom, inasmuch as it not only adds considerably 'to the National Wealth, but is moreover a fruitful Nursery of able Seamen for the publick Service: And 21 Geo. 3. c. 31. 'whereas, by an Act passed in the eleventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for 'the Encouragement of the White Herring Fishery, a Bounty of thirty Shillings per Ton is made payable 'annually to the Owner or Owners of all decked Busses or Vessels, from twenty to eighty Tons Burthen, 'fitted out and employed in the said Fisheries, for the Space or Term of seven Years, from and after the 'twenty-second Day of October one thousand seven hundred and seventy-one, and to the End of the then 'next ensuing Session of Parliament, in the Manner, and under the Regulations therein mentioned: And 19 Geo. 3. c. 26. 'whereas, by an Act passed in the nineteenth Year of his said Majesty's Reign, for continuing and amend- 'ing the said Act, it was enacted, That the said former Act should, from and after the Term in the said 'former Act mentioned, be continued for and during the further Term of seven Years, and from thence to 'the End of the then next Session of Parliament: And whereas it might tend to the Encouragement of the 'said Fishery, by inducing a greater Number of Persons to engage therein, if the said Bounty were extended, 'under certain Restrictions, to the Owners of decked Busses or Vessels of a greater Burthen than eighty 'Tons:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, the said Bounty of thirty Shillings per Ton shall, during the Continuance of the Term for which the same was so granted, be extended to, and be payable and paid to the Owner or Owners of, all decked Busses or Vessels, of what Burthen soever the same may be, other than and except decked Busses or Vessels under twenty Tons Burthen, which shall be in all Respects (save only in respect to their Burthen or Tonnage) built, fitted out, visited, and licensed, according to the Directions of the said last-mentioned Act, and shall be manned, victualled, furnished, and accoutred, in Proportion to their respective Rates of Tonnage, in the Manner by the said Act prescribed for the manning, victualling, furnishing, and accoutring Busses and Vessels of a Burthen not exceeding that of eighty Tons: Provided nevertheless, that no Owner or Owners shall be intitled to the said Bounty for more than eighty Tons, upon or in respect of any Buss or Vessel, although such Buss or Vessel shall exceed that Burthen.

Preamble, relative to Places of Rendezvous appointed by former Acts.

'II. And whereas, in and by the said recited Act of the eleventh Year of his present Majesty's Reign, 'certain Times and Places are appointed for the Rendezvous of all decked Busses and Vessels employed in 'the said Fishery, and certain Oaths are thereby also directed to be taken by the Owner and Master, or 'Chief Officer of every such Buss or Vessel, before the Collector or Comptroller of the Port of her Clear- 'ance outwards, previous to the Departure of such Buss or Vessel, and by the said Master or Chief Officer, 'after her Return to such Port as aforesaid, in order to her Discharge, as well in respect to her being at one 'of the said Places of Rendezvous, as in respect to several other Matters therein specified: And whereas by 'the said Act, made in the nineteenth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, for continuing and amending 'the said former Act, the Times of Rendezvous were altered, and other Places of Rendezvous were added 'to those appointed by the said former Act: And whereas the compelling Busses and Vessels, employed in 'the said Fishery, to rendezvous at the Places, and within the Times, in and by the said Act appointed 'and limited for that Purpose respectively, has been found extremely inconvenient and injurious to the 'Owners of such Vessels, and to the Persons employed therein, and is a great Discouragement to the 'Fishery;' be it therefore enacted, That so much, and such Parts of the said two severally recited Acts, as direct that any decked Buss or Vessel shall proceed to or be at any of the Places of Rendezvous, in and by the said Acts for that Purpose appointed, and also so much and such Parts of the said recited Act of the eleventh Year of his present Majesty's Reign, as direct that the Owner or Master, or Chief Officer of any such Vessel, shall make such several Oaths as are therein prescribed, shall be, and the same are hereby repealed; and that, instead thereof, the Owner or Owners, and Master or Chief Officer of the Vessel shall, before her Clearance, take and subscribe an Oath, before the Collector or Comptroller of the Port of Clearance outwards, in the following Form; that is to say,

Part of the said Acts repealed.

Owner, &c. to be sworn before Clearance outwards.

The Oath.

'I A. B. do swear, That it is really and truly my firm Purpose and determined Resolution, that the Buss 'or Vessel now lying in the Port of called (specifying the Names of the 'Port and Vessel), as now manned, furnished, and accoutred, shall proceed immediately upon the British 'White Herring Fishery, there to continue fishing, in an orderly regular Manner, for the Space of three 'Months at the least, (unless she shall have sooner completed her full Loading of Fish), without impeding 'or obstructing any other Vessels which shall be employed in the said Fishery.

'So help me GOD.'

And that the Master, or Chief Officer of the Vessel, after her Return to Port in order to her Discharge, shall likewise take and subscribe the following Oath, before the said Collector or Comptroller; that is to say,

'I A. B.

'I A. B. do swear, That the Buss or Vessel, called the now lying in the Port of (specifying the Names of the Vessel and Port), did, without Delay, proceed from 'the said Port, upon her last Clearance from thence outwards, to or upon the British White Herring 'Fishery, and did there remain and continue employed in fishing for Herrings, or other Fish, according to 'Law; and that during all that Time, the Quantity of Nets and other Stores, and Number of Men by 'Law in that Behalf required, were on board the said Buss or Vessel, or were employed in the lawful Pro-'secution of the said Fishery; and that the said Buss or Vessel hath not, since her said last Clearance outwards 'from the said Port, been on any other Voyage, or pursued any other Design or View of Profit than that of 'taking Fish, and salting or curing the same, or salting or curing other fresh Fish lawfully purchased at Sea; 'and that all the Fish brought into Port by the said Buss or Vessel, were taken by the Crew belonging 'thereto; [and in case of the Buss or Vessel not returning till after the Expiration of three Months, the follow-'ing Words are to be added to the said Oath, (videlicet,) or were purchased of British Subjects.]

All decked Vessels, on Compliance with certain Conditions, shall be intitled to the Bounty of 30*s.* per Ton.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in case the Crew of any Buss or Vessel, employed in the said White Herring Fishery, shall, during the Time of their Continuance at Sea, catch any Cod, Ling, or Hake, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Crew to take and use, for the salting or curing of such Cod, Ling, or Hake, a sufficient Quantity of the Salt on board of such Buss or Vessel, for which they shall be intitled to the same Allowance as if the same had been consumed in the salting or curing of Herrings, but so as nevertheless that no Bounty shall be allowed on the Exportation of such Cod, Ling, or Hake; and to that Intent all such Cod, Ling, and Hake shall, on the landing thereof, and before the same shall be removed from Shore, have Part of the Tail cut off in the Presence of the Collector or Comptroller of the Port, that it may be known that the Owners of the Fish so marked are not intitled, in respect thereof, to any Bounty upon the Exportation of the same; and the said Collector or Comptroller is hereby impowered and required to cut off, or cause so to be in his Presence, Part of the Tail of all such Cod, Ling, and Hake, on the landing thereof; and if any of such Cod, Ling, or Hake, shall be landed or removed from the Shore before the same shall be tendered to the said Collector or Comptroller to have Part of the Tail cut off as aforesaid, all the Fish so landed or removed shall be forfeited, together with double the Value thereof, to be recovered of the Importer of such Fish, or of the Proprietor or Master of the Vessel.

Regulations relative to Cod, Ling, and Hake.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Owners or Chief Officers of any decked Busses or Vessels, employed in the said Fishery, to purchase in any Part of the Seas, or other Waters where such Fish are to be found, any Quantity or Quantities of fresh and unsalted Herrings, Cod, Ling, or Hake, from or out of any Boat or Boats belonging to British Subjects; and also to ship any Quantity of Fish, as well what they shall catch or take, as what they shall so purchase on board of any other British Vessel or Vessels; and that the Owner or Owners, or Chief Officer or Officers, of such last-mentioned Vessel or Vessels shall be at Liberty to enter and land the Fish so shipped on board thereof, in any Port or Ports of Great Britain, in such and the same Manner as the Owners or Chief Officers of the Busses or Vessels, out of which the same shall be so shipped, could or might have lawfully done; Oath being taken and subscribed, by the Owner or Chief Officer of each respective Vessel bringing such Fish into Port, before the Collector or Comptroller of the Port where the same shall be entered, specifying the Sorts of Fish, and the respective Quantities of each Sort, together with the Name or Names of the Buss or Vessel, Busses or Vessels, from which the said Fish were shipped, and of the respective Master or Chief Officer thereof, and of the Port or Ports from whence the said Buss or Vessel, Busses or Vessels, was or were cleared; and also that such Fish were, according to the best of his Knowledge and Belief, caught and salted, or caught and cured, as the Case may be, by British Subjects; and the Collector or Comptroller of the Port, at which such Fish shall be so entered and landed, shall, upon Demand, deliver gratis, to any of the Owners of such Fish, a Certificate under his Hand and Seal, specifying the Particulars of the same, and the salting or Cure thereof; which Certificate shall be admitted as Proof of the Consumption of the Salt used in the salting or curing of such Fish, as the Case may be.

Owners of decked Vessels may purchase, at Sea, fresh Herrings, &c. from British Subjects.

Particulars to be sworn to on landing thereof.

VI. Provided always, That no Owner or Owners of any Buss or Vessel, which shall return into Port from the said Fishery, within the said Space of three Calendar Months, to be computed from the Day whereon the Nets belonging to such Buss or Vessel were first shot or wetted, without a full Cargo of Herrings; or having a full Cargo, unless the Whole of such Cargo was bona fide caught and taken by the Crew belonging to such Buss or Vessel, shall be intitled to any Bounty in respect of the Tonnage of such Buss or Vessel; any Thing herein, or in any other Act, contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Vessels returning into Port within three Months, without a full Cargo, not intitled to Bounty.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That so much of an Act, made in the fifteenth and sixteenth Years of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the Second (intituled, An Act to impower the Importers or Proprietors of Rum or Spirits of the British Sugar Plantations to land the same before Payment of the Duties of Excise charged thereon, and to lodge the same in Warehouses at their own Expence; and for the Relief of Ralph Barrow, in respect to the Duty on some Rock Salt, lost by the Overflowing of the Rivers Weaver and Dane, as relates to the landing of Rum or Spirits of the British Sugar Plantations before Payment of the Duties of Excise, and to the lodging of the same in Warehouses at the Expence of the Importers or Proprietors thereof, which was to continue in force from the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and forty-two, to the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and forty-nine, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament; and which, by several subsequent Acts, of the twenty-third and thirty-first Years of the Reign of his said late Majesty, and the fourth, eleventh, and nineteenth Years of the Reign of his present Majesty, was farther continued until the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, shall be, and the same is hereby farther continued from the Expiration thereof, until the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and ninety-two, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament. 'VIII. And whereas by an Act, passed in the second Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King 'GEORGE the Second, intituled, An Act for the better Preservation of his Majesty's Woods in America, and 'for the Encouragement of the Importation of Naval Stores from thence; and to encourage the Importation of 'Masts, Yards, and Bowsprits, from that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; certain Premiums, for the 'Encouragement of the Planters in the British Plantations in America to send Naval Stores to Great Britain, 'were granted upon the Importation thereof, for a limited Time; which Premiums, by several subsequent 'Acts of Parliament, were continued to the End of the Session of Parliament in one thousand seven hundred 'and eighty-two: And whereas considerable Quantities of Turpentine, Pitch, and Tar, have been pre-'pared by the Proprietors of Plantations and Lands in East Florida, for the Purpose of importing the same 'into Great Britain, under an Expectation of receiving the like Premiums, and some Part of such Tur-'pentine, Pitch, and Tar, has been so imported into Great Britain; but, for want of an Act of Parlia-'ment to further continue the granting such Premiums, the Importers thereof are not, by Law, intitled to, 'nor can be allowed the same, without the Interference of Parliament, and other Part of such Turpentine, 'Pitch, and Tar, is expected hereafter to arrive: And whereas it is just and expedient that the Premiums 'heretofore granted upon the Importation of Pitch, Tar, and Turpentine, from East Florida into Great 'Britain, should be revived, and continued, for a limited Time, from the Expiration of the Session of 'Parliament in one thousand seven hundred and eighty-two:' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority afore-said, That the several Premiums or Bounties upon Turpentine, Pitch, and Tar, granted by the said recited Act, passed in the second Year of the Reign of his late Majesty, and continued, by several subsequent Acts, to the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eighty-one, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, shall be, and the same are hereby revived, and continued, from the said Period, to the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five.

12 Car. 2. c. 23, and c. 24.

'WHEREAS, by two Acts of Parliament, made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, one intituled, A Grant of certain Impoſitions upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, for the Increaſe of his Majeſty's Revenue during his Life; and the other intituled, An Act for tak-

'ing away the Court of Wards and Liveries, and Tenures in Capite, and by Knights Service, and Purveyance, 'and for settling a Revenue upon his Majesty in lieu thereof, it was, among other Things, enacted, That 'every Common Brewer, not selling Beer or Ale by Retail, for and in Consideration of Waste by Filling 'and Leakage of their Beer and Ale, should have and be allowed, out of the Returns made by the Gaugers, 'the several Allowances and Abatements after mentioned; that is to say, Upon every three and twenty 'Barrels of Beer, whether Strong or Small, returned by the said Gaugers, three Barrels; and upon every 'two and twenty Barrels of Ale, whether Strong or Small, returned by the Gaugers, two Barrels: And 'whereas, by another Act of Parliament, made in the fifteenth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the 'Second (intituled, An Additional Act for the better ordering and collecting the Duty of Excise, and preventing 15 Car. 2. c. 11. 'the Abuses therein), it was, among other Things, enacted, That no Common Brewer of Beer and Ale 'should sell, deliver, or carry out, any Beer or Ale to any of his Customers, either in whole Cask, or by 'the Gallon, before Notice given to an Excise Officer, but between the Hours of the Day therein men-'tioned: And whereas, by another Act of Parliament, made in the first Year of the Reign of King WIL-'LIAM and Queen MARY (intituled, An Act for an additional Duty of Excise upon Beer, Ale, and other 1 Gul. & Mar. 'Liquors*)*, it was, among other Things, enacted, That the Allowances appointed to be made and allowed c. 24. Every Person selling Beer, &c. in a less Quantity than four Gallons and a Half, deemed a Retailer.

'II. And whereas by a certain Act, made in the last Session of Parliament (intituled, An Act to discon- 24 Geo. 3. c. 46. Sterling for every two hundred and fifty-two Gallons of Spirits made from Malt, Corn, or Grain, and in Proportion for a greater or leſſer Quantity in that Part of Great Britain called England; and in a rateable Proportion of twenty-two Pounds for every two hundred and fifty-two Gallons of Spirits made from Malt, Corn, or Grain, according to the Duties charged thereon, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, according to the reſpective Stock of ſuch Diſtiller or Diſtillers, as the ſame was taken by the Officers of Exciſe reſpectively, who ſurveyed the ſeveral and reſpective Malt Diſtillers, between the twenty-ſecond Day of October, in the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-four, and the Commencement of the ſaid Act; and if the ſaid Collector ſhall not have Money ſufficient in his Hands to pay the ſaid Sums ſo ordered, the Commiſſioners ſhall cauſe the ſame to be paid out of any Monies ariſing by the ſaid Duties.

Six Days Notice to be given of Intention to apply for ſaid Allowance.

III. Provided alſo, That every ſuch Diſtiller who ſhall apply for ſuch Allowance, ſhall give Notice of his Intention to apply for the ſame, unto the Collector or Superviſor of Exciſe of the Diſtrict within which the Diſtillery of ſuch Diſtiller is ſituated, ſix Days before ſuch Application to the Commiſſioners of Exciſe or Juſtices of the Peace reſpectively, in order that ſuch Collector or Superviſor may attend (if he thinks fit), to ſhew unto ſuch Commiſſioners or Juſtices how much the Stock of ſuch Diſtiller reſpectively amounted unto according to the Survey of the Officers made in October one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-four, as aforeſaid.

Application to be made by Nov. 1, 1785.

IV. Provided alſo, That every ſuch Diſtiller, intending to apply for ſuch Allowance as aforeſaid, ſhall apply for the ſame within ſix Months after the firſt Day of May one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-five.

Allowance when aſcertained never to be again examined.

V. Provided alſo, That after any of the ſaid Commiſſioners or Juſtices ſhall have once aſcertained ſuch Allowance, the ſame ſhall never after be examined into by any other of the Commiſſioners or Juſtices.

'VI. And whereas an Account was taken of the Stock in Hand, at the ſeveral different Corn Diſtil-'leries, by Order of the Commiſſioners of Exciſe in England and Scotland reſpectively, and by their proper 'Officers, within ten Days next preceding the Commencement of the new Rate of Duties chargeable 'under the ſaid Act, and was ſo taken, caſt, and computed, at and after the Rate of one to ten over 'Hydrometer Proof;' be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Perſon, claiming any Allowance by way of Drawback as aforeſaid, ſhall and do preſent a Petition to the Commiſſioners of Exciſe in England and Scotland reſpectively; in which Petition ſhall be ſtated, not only the Amount of the Allowance claimed thereby, but alſo the particular Place and Places where the Spirits on which ſuch Drawback is claimed, were made and diſtilled, the particular Period or Time, within twelve Months laſt preceding the Commencement of the reduced Duties, when the Stock of the Petitioner, at each and every of ſuch Place of working, was either entirely out or at the loweſt State, if any was then in Hand), the Time next after ſuch Period when working began at each of ſuch Places reſpectively, and for how long Time Worts and Waſh were continued to be brewed and diſtilled therein reſpectively, the Quantity of Waſh brewed, and on which the Duties on Low Wines and Spirits have been charged, and actually paid by the Petitioner, and the whole Amount of the Duties ſo reſpectively paid within ſuch Period; and that the Quantity of Spirits ſold and permitted out ſince the Period, within ſuch twelve Months, at which the Stock was either wholly out, or at the loweſt State as aforeſaid, together with the Stock ſo remaining in Hand, and on which ſuch Drawback ſhall be claimed (caſt and computed at one to ten over Hydrometer Proof), did not amount to one fifth Part of the Quantity of Waſh, on which the Duties chargeable on Low Wines and Spirits had been charged, and actually paid by the Petitioner within ſuch Period, Reſpect being had to the Stock in Hand, if any was at ſuch loweſt State, or when the Petitioner ſo began working; to which Petition ſhall be annexed an Affidavit, made and ſworn by one or more of the Petitioners, before any two or more of the ſaid reſpective Commiſſioners, or before two or more Juſtices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Diviſion, or Place, where ſuch Spirits were remaining in Stock, verifying the Particulars and Matters ſtated in ſuch Petition; and every Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall be convicted of making or taking a falſe Oath, to any of the Facts herein before directed or required to be ſworn, ſhall be deemed guilty of Perjury, and ſhall be liable to the Pains and Penalties to which Perſons are liable for wilful and corrupt Perjury.

'Act for the more effectual preventing the illegal Importation of foreign Spirits, and for putting a Stop to the 'private Distillation of British-made Spirituous Liquors; for explaining such Part of the Act imposing a Duty 'upon Male Servants, as relates to the Right of Appeal from the Justices of the Peace; to amend and rectify 'a Mistake in an Act of the last Session of Parliament, with respect to the Removal of Tea from one Part of this 'Kingdom to other Parts thereof; and for preventing vexatious Actions against Officers of Excise acting in pursuance 'of the Authority given by Excise Statutes; whereby it is enacted, That if any Tea, exceeding the Quantity 'of twenty Pounds Weight at any one Time, directed to one and the same Person, or Persons (where 'there are two or more in joint Trade or Partnership), and not being in the original Chest, in which the 'same was imported into this Kingdom by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to 'the East Indies, and then continuing in the same State in which it was imported, should be found re-'moved or carried, or removing or carrying, whether with or without Permit, from any City, Town, 'Parish, or Place, in this Kingdom, not being within the Limits of the weekly Bills of Mortality, or of 'the Chief Office of Excise in London, to any other Place out of the Limits aforesaid, not within the said 'City, Town, Parish, or Place, from which the same should be so removed or carried, all such Tea, to-'gether with the Canisters, Bags, and other Package, containing the same, and the Vessels and Boats, and 'the Horses, and other Cattle and Carriages employed in removing and carrying the same, should be for-'feited, and should and might be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise: And whereas the restrain-'ing the removing Tea from one City, Town, Parish, or Place to another, without the Limits of the 'Chief Office of Excise in London, to so small a Quantity at one Time as twenty Pounds Weight, has 'been found inconvenient;' be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the first Day of August Clauses repealed. one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, the said several Clauses shall be, and the same are hereby repealed.

Reciting Regulations and Powers to be observed, &c. by Officers of Customs, under former Acts.

' or other Officers of his Majesty's Customs, has been found inconvenient;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the tenth Day of August one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, such Parts of such several Acts of Parliament as require the said Regulations, Powers, and Authorities, to be observed and executed by the Customers, Collectors, or other Officers of his Majesty's Customs, shall be repealed, and shall be no longer observed or practised; and that, instead thereof, it shall be lawful for such Officer or Officers of Excise, as the Commissioners of Excise shall appoint for that Purpose, and they are hereby required to execute all and every the said Regulations, Powers, and Authorities, as fully and effectually as the Customers, Collectors, or other Officers of the Customs, might have done before the passing this Act.

An Oath to be taken previous to polling.

'V. And whereas, although from the various and disputed Rights of Voting in several Cities, Boroughs, 'and other Places, a positive Oath of Qualification cannot be required from the Electors, yet it is appre-'hended that unqualified Persons may be deterred from polling at such Elections, under fictitious Names or 'otherwise, by requiring from Electors previously to their polling, the Oath or Affirmation herein after 'mentioned;' be it therefore further enacted, That, from and after the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, upon every Election to be made, within that Part of Great Britain called England, or Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, of any Member or Members to serve in Parliament, liament, in all Cases where no Oath or Affirmation of Qualification, other than the Oaths or Affirmations against Bribery, or of Allegiance, Supremacy, and Abjuration, can now by Law be required, every Person claiming to give his Vote at the said Election, shall (if required by any Candidate, or any Person having a Right to vote at such Election), before he is admitted to poll, take the Oath (or, being one of the People called Quakers, make the solemn Affirmation) following; (that is to say,)

The Oath.

'I DO swear, (or, being a Quaker, do affirm), That my Name is A. B. and that I am [specifying the Addition, Profession, or Trade of such Person], and that the Place of my Abode is at in the County of [and if it is a Town consisting of more Streets than one, specifying what Street]; and that I have not before polled at this Election; and that I verily believe myself to be of the full Age of twenty-one Years.'

Which Oath, or solemn Affirmation, the Returning Officer or Officers at such Election, and his or their Deputies and Poll Clerks, is or are hereby authorised and required to administer.

Returning Officers authorised to administer Oaths during a Scrutiny.

VI. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, upon every Election of any Member or Members to serve in Parliament for any County, City, Borough, or Place, within England or Wales, or for Berwick upon Tweed, it shall and may be lawful for the Returning Officer or Officers, if he or they see Cause, and he and they are in such Case authorised, during the Continuance of any Scrutiny which shall have been granted as aforesaid, to administer an Oath to any Person whatsoever consenting to take the same, touching the Right of any Person having voted at such Election, or touching any other Matter or Thing material or necessary towards carrying on such Scrutiny.

Poll Clerks to take an Oath for the faithful Discharge of their Duty.

'VII. And whereas it is expedient that all Persons employed as Poll Clerks at Elections, should take an Oath for the faithful Discharge of their Office, but the same is not at present required or authorised by Law, except in Counties and other Places for which there are express Provisions made by Statute;' be it therefore further enacted, That, from and after the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, at every Election of any Member or Members of Parliament for any City, Borough, or other Place, within England or Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, every Person whom the Returning Officer or Officers shall retain to act as a Clerk in taking the Poll shall, before beginning to take such Poll, be sworn by such Returning Officer or Officers truly and indifferently to take the said Poll, and to set down the Name of each Voter, and his Addition, Profession, or Trade, and the Place of his Abode, and for whom he shall poll; and to poll no Person who is not sworn or put to his Affirmation, where by this, or any other Statute, any Oath or Affirmation now is, or hereafter shall be required, which Oath of every such Poll Clerk the said Returning Officer or Officers is or are hereby authorised and required to administer.

Persons taking, or suborning others to take, a false Oath, liable to the Pains inflicted by 5 Eliz. c. 9; and 2 Geo. 2. c. 25.

VIII And be it further enacted, That if any Person, in taking any Oath or Affirmation herein before appointed or authorised to be taken before any Returning Officer or Officers, shall thereby commit wilful Perjury, and be thereof convicted; or if any Person shall unlawfully and corruptly procure or suborn any other Person to take any such Oath or Affirmation, whereby he or she shall commit such wilful Perjury, and shall be thereof convicted, he or she so offending shall incur such Pains and Penalties as are inflicted in and by two Acts of Parliament, the one made in the fifth Year of the Reign of the late Queen Elizabeth, (intituled, An Act for Punishment of such Persons as shall procure or commit any wilful Perjury); the other made in the second Year of his late Majesty King GEORGE the Second (intituled, An Act for the more effectual preventing, and further Punishment of Forgery, Perjury, and Subornation of Perjury; and to make it Felony to steal Bonds, Notes, or other Securities for Payment of Money), for any Perjury or Subornation of Perjury, contrary to the said Acts.

Not to extend to Places where particular Regulations have been enacted by Statute.

IX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act before contained shall extend to or in anywise affect, alter, or regulate the Mode or Time of Proceeding at any Election of any Member or Members for any Place where particular Regulations, touching the Duration of Polls and Scrutinies, are specially enacted by Statute, but that every such Election shall be begun and carried on in the same Manner as if this Act had not been made.

Where Returns have not been duly made, a Select Committee may be appointed, conformable to 10 Geo. 3. c. 16; and 11 Geo. 3. c. 42.

'X. And whereas an Act was passed in the tenth Year of his present Majesty's Reign (intituled, An Act to regulate the Trials of controverted Elections, or Returns of Members to serve in Parliament); and another Act was passed in the eleventh Year of his said Majesty's Reign, for explaining and amending the said former Act: And whereas no Provision is made therein for the hearing and determining any Petition, unless the same shall complain of an undue Election or Return of Members to serve in Parliament;' be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, if upon any Writ or Writs to be issued for the Election of any Member or Members to serve in Parliament, no Return shall be made to the same on or before the Day on which such Writ is made returnable; or if a Writ shall have been issued during any Session or Prorogation of Parliament, and no Return shall be made to the same within fifty-two Days after the Day on which such Writ bears Date; or if the Return made in either of such Cases shall not be a Return of a Member or Members, according to the Requisition thereof, but contain special Matters only concerning such Election; it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons, having had, or claiming to have had, a Right to vote at such Election, or claiming to have had a Right to be returned as duly elected thereat, who shall think himself or themselves aggrieved, to petition the House of Commons concerning the same; and upon such Petition being presented, a Day and Hour shall be appointed for taking the same into Consideration, and Notice thereof in Writing shall be forthwith given by the Speaker to the Petitioners, and to the Returning Officer or Officers by whom such Return ought to have been made, or shall have been made, accompanied with an Order to him or them to attend the House at the Time appointed, by himself or themselves, his or their Counsel or Agents; and a Select Committee shall be appointed, according to the Directions of the said two recited Acts, for regulating the Trial of controverted Elections; which Committee shall try and determine whether any, and which of the Person or Persons named in such Petition ought to have been returned, or whether a new Writ ought to issue; which Determination shall be final to all Intents and Purposes; and the House being informed thereof by the Chairman of the said Select Committee, shall order the same to be entered in their Journals, and give the necessary Directions for ordering a Return to be made, or for altering the Return if made, or for the issuing a new Writ for a new Election, or for carrying the said Determination into Execution, as the Case may require.

Regulations of 10 Geo. 3. c. 16; and 11 Geo. 3. c. 42, extended to this Act.

XI. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Rules, Regulations, Authorities, and Powers, given or prescribed by either of the said recited Acts for regulating the Trial of controverted Elections, with respect to Select Committees to be appointed by virtue of the said Acts, or either of them, shall be in full Force and Effect with respect to Select Committees to be appointed by virtue of this present Act, in as full and ample Manner as if the same were herein repeated and particularly and specially enacted concerning the same.

When Returning Officers cannot be found, or do not appear at Committees, other Persons may be appointed to appear in their Stead, and where more than one Petition is presented, the House to determine whether the Returning Officer is to strike off from the List of Members drawn by Lot.

XII. Provided always, That if the Returning Officer or Officers, by whom such Return ought to have been made, or has been made, cannot be found so as to be served with the Notice or Order herein-before mentioned, or being served shall not appear by himself or themselves, his or their Counsel or Agents, at the Day or Time appointed for taking such Petition into Consideration, it shall and may be lawful for the House to permit or authorise any Person to appear in the Stead of him or them; and in case there shall be more Petitions than one presented, complaining of such Return, or Omission of a Return, on distinct Interests, or complaining upon different Grounds, the House shall determine from the Nature of the Case whether the Returning Officer or Officers, or Person appearing in the Stead of him or them, shall, together with such Petitioners, be intitled to strike off from the List of Members drawn by Lot, in the Manner directed by the said Act, passed in the eleventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, in the Case where there shall be more than two Parties before the House, or whether such List shall be reduced by the Parties severally presenting the said Petitions only.

Returning Officers liable to Prosecution for Offences against this Act.

XIII. And be it enacted, That if any Sheriff, or other Returning Officer or Officers, who shall preside at any Election of a Member or Members to serve in Parliament for any County, City, Borough, or Place, shall wilfully offend against, or act contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, every such Person shall be liable to be prosecuted by Information or Indictment in his Majesty's Court of King's Bench, or at any Court of Oyer and Terminer, Great Sessions, or Gaol Delivery, for the County, City, Town or Place, where such Offence shall be committed, in which no Nolle prosequi or Cesset processus shall be granted; any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Returning Officers may be sued for neglecting to return Persons duly elected.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Sheriff or Returning Officer shall wilfully delay, neglect, or refuse duly to return any Person who ought to be returned to serve in Parliament for any County, City, Borough, or Place within Great Britain, every such Person may, in case it shall have been determined by a Select Committee, appointed in the Manner herein before directed, that such Person was intitled to have been returned, sue the Sheriff, or other Officer or Officers, having so wilfully delayed, neglected, or refused, duly to make such Return, and every or any of them, at his Election, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or the Court of Session in Scotland; and shall recover double the Damages he shall sustain by reason thereof, together with full Costs of Suit.

Actions to be commenced within one Year after the Offence, or six Months after the Conclusion of Proceedings in the House.
